01.001 As God has shown me in holy vision the travels of the Advent people to the Holy City, and the rich reward to be given those who wait the return of their Lord from the wedding, it may be my duty to give you a short sketch of what God has revealed to me. The dear saints have got many trials to pass through.

01.002 But our light afflictions which are but for a moment worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

01.003 I have tried to bring back a good report, & a few grapes from the heavenly Canaan, for which many would stone me, as the congregation bade stone Caleb and Joshua for their report, (Num. 14: 10).

01.004 But I declare to you, my brother in the Lord, it is a goodly land, and we are well able to go up and possess it.

01.005 While praying at the family altar the Holy Ghost fell on me and I seemed to be rising higher and higher, far above the dark world.

01.006 I turned to look for the Advent people in the world, but could not find them, when a voice said to me, Look again, and look a little higher.

01.007 At this, I raised my eyes and see a straight and narrow path, cast up high above the world. On this path the Advent people were traveling to the City, which was at the farther end of the path.

01.008 They had a bright light set up behind them at the first end of the path, which an angel told me was the Midnight Cry.

01.009 This light shone all along the path and gave light for their feet so they might not stumble.

01.0010 And if they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the City, they were safe.

01.0011 But soon some grew weary, and said the City was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before.

01.0012 Then Jesus would encourage them by raising his glorious right arm, and from his arm came a glorious light which waved over the Advent band, and they shouted, Hallelujah!

01.0013 Others rashly denied the light behind them, and said that it was not God that had led them out so far.

01.0014 The light behind them went out which left their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and got their eyes off the mark and lost sight of Jesus, and fell off the path down in the dark and wicked world below.

01.0015 It was just as impossible for them to get on the path again & go to the City, as all the wicked world which God had rejected.

01.0016 They fell all the way along the path one after another, until we heard the voice of God like many waters, which gave us the day and hour of Jesus' coming.

01.0017 The living saints, 144, 000 in number, know and understand the voice, while the wicked thought it was thunder & an earthquake.

01.0018 When God spake the time, he poured on us the Holy Ghost, and our faces began to light up and shine with the glory of God as Moses did when he came down from Mount Sinai, (Ex. 34: 30-34). By this time the 144, 000 were all sealed and perfectly united.

01.0019 On their foreheads was written, God, New Jerusalem, and a glorious Star containing Jesus' new name.

01.0020 At our happy, holy state the wicked were enraged, and would rush violently up to lay hands on us to thrust us in prison, when we would stretch forth the hand in the name of the Lord, and the wicked would fall helpless to the ground.

01.0021 Then it was that the synagogue of Satan knew that God had loved us who could wash one another's feet, and salute the holy brethren with a holy kiss, and they worshipped at our feet.

01.0022 Soon our eyes were drawn to the East, for a small black cloud had appeared about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the Sign of the Son of Man.

01.0023 We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer, lighter, and brighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud.

01.0024 The bottom appeared like fire, a rainbow was over it, around the cloud were ten thousand angels singing a most lovely song.

01.0025 And on it sat the Son of Man, on his head were crowns, his hair was white and curly and lay on his shoulders.

01.0026 His feet had the appearance of fire, in his right hand was a sharp sickle, in his left a silver trumpet.

01.0027 His eyes were as a flame of fire, which searched his children through and through.

01.0028 Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness.

01.0029 Then we all cried out, who shall be able to stand? Is my robe spotless?

01.0030 Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was some time of awful silence, when Jesus spoke, Those who have clean hands and a pure heart shall be able to stand, my grace is sufficient for you.

01.0031 At this, our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart.

01.0032 And the angels struck a note higher and sang again while the cloud drew still nearer the earth.

01.0033 Then Jesus' silver trumpet sounded, as he descended on the cloud, wrapped in flames of fire.

01.0034 He gazed on the graves of the sleeping saints then raised his eyes and hands to heaven & cried out, Awake! Awake! ye that sleep in the dust, and arise.

01.0035 Then there was a mighty earthquake. The graves opened, and the dead came up clothed with immortality.

01.0036 The 144, 000 shouted, Hallelujah! as they recognised their friends who had been torn from them by death, and in the same moment we were changed and caught up together with them to meet the Lord in the air.

01.0037 We all entered the cloud together, and were 7 days ascending to the sea of glass, when Jesus brought along the crowns and with his own right hand placed them on our heads.

01.0038 He gave us harps of gold and palms of victory.

01.0039 Here on the sea of glass the 144, 000 stood in a perfect square.

01.0040 Some of them had very bright crowns, others not so bright. Some crowns appeared hung with stars, while others had but few.

01.0041 All were perfectly satisfied with their crowns. And they were all clothed with a glorious white mantle from their shoulders to their feet.

01.0042 Angels were all about us as we marched over the sea of glass to the gate of the City.

01.0043 Jesus raised his mighty glorious arm, laid hold of the gate and swung it back on its golden hinges, and said to us, You have washed your robes in my blood, stood stiffly for my truth, enter in.

01.0044 We all marched in and felt we had a perfect right in the City.

01.0045 Here we see the tree of life, & the throne of God.

01.0046 Out of the throne came a pure river of water, and on either side of the river was the tree of life.

01.0047 On one side of the river was a trunk of a tree and a trunk on the other side of the river, both of pure transparent gold.

01.0048 At first I thought I see two trees. I looked again and see they were united at the top in one tree.

01.0049 So it was the tree of life on either side of the river of life.

01.0050 Its branches bowed to the place where we stood. And the fruit was glorious, which looked like gold mixed with silver.

01.0051 We all went under the tree, and sat down to look at the glory of the place, when Bro. Fitch and Stockman, who had preached the gospel of the kingdom, whom God had laid in the grave to save them, came up to us and asked us what we had passed through while they were sleeping.

01.0052 We tried to call up our greatest trials, but they looked so small compared with the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory that surrounded us, that we could not speak them out, and we all cried out Hallelujah, heaven is cheap enough, and we touched our glorious harps and made heaven's arches ring.

01.0053 And as we were gazing at the glories of the place, our eyes were attracted upwards to something that had the appearance of silver.

01.0054 I asked Jesus to let me see what was within there. In a moment we were winging our way upward and entering in.

01.0055 Here we saw good old father Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Noah, Daniel, and many like them.

01.0056 And I saw a veil with a heavy fringe of silver, and gold as a border on the bottom. It was very beautiful.

01.0057 I asked Jesus what was within the veil. He raised it with his own right arm, and bade me take heed.

01.0058 I saw there a glorious ark, overlaid with pure gold, and it had a glorious border resembling Jesus' crowns.

01.0059 On it were two bright angels; their wings were spread over the ark as they sat on each end, with their faces turned towards each other and looking downward.

01.0060 In the ark, beneath where the angels wings were spread, was a golden pot of Manna of a yellowish cast, and I saw a rod, which Jesus said was Aarons, I saw it bud, blossom, and bear fruit.

01.0061 And I saw two long golden rods on which hung silver wires, and on the wires most glorious grapes.

01.0062 One cluster was more than a man here can carry.

01.0063 And I saw Jesus step up and take of the manna, almonds, grapes, and pomegranates, and bear them down to the city, and place them on the supper table.

01.0064 I stepped up to see how much was taken away, and there was just as much left, and we shouted Hallelujah. Amen.

01.0065 We all descended from this place down into the city, and with Jesus at our head we all descended from the city down to this earth, on a great and mighty mountain, which could not bear Jesus up, and it parted asunder, and there was a mighty plain.

01.0066 Then we looked up and saw the great city with twelve foundations, twelve gates, three on each side, and an angel at each gate, and all cried out the city, the great city, it's coming, it's coming down from God, out of heaven, and it came and settled on the place where we stood.

01.0067 Then we began to look at the glorious things outside of the city.

01.0068 There I saw most glorious houses, that had the appearance of silver, supported by four pillars, set with pearls most glorious to behold, which were to be inhabited by the saints.

01.0069 In them was a golden shelf, I saw many of the saints go into the houses, take off their glittering crowns and lay them on the shelf, then go out into the field by the houses to do something with the earth, not as we have to do with the earth here; no, no.

01.0070 A glorious light shone all about their heads, and they were continually shouting and offering praises to God.

01.0071 And I saw another field full of all kinds of flowers, and as I plucked them, I cried out, well they will never fade.

01.0072 Next I saw a field of tall grass, most glorious to behold.

01.0073 It was living green, and had a reflection of silver and gold as it waved proudly to the glory of King Jesus.

01.0074 Then we entered a field full of all kinds of beasts; the lion, the lamb, the leopard and the wolf, altogether in perfect union.

01.0075 We passed through the midst of them, and they followed on peaceably after.

01.0076 Then we entered a wood, not like the dark woods we have here, no no, but light, and all over glorious.

01.0077 The branches of the trees waved to and fro, and we all cried out, we will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in this woods.

01.0078 We passed through the woods, for we were on our way to Mount Zion, as we were traveling along we met a company who were also gazing at the glories of the place: I noticed red as a border on their garments. Their crowns were brilliant--their robes were pure white.

01.0079 As we greeted them, I asked Jesus who they were?

01.0080 He said they were martyrs that had been slain for him.

01.0081 With them was an innumerable company of little ones, they had a hem of red on their garments also.

01.0082 Mount Zion was just before us, and on the Mount sat a glorious temple, and about it were seven other mountains, on which grew roses and lilies, and I saw the little ones climb, or if they chose use their little wings and fly to the top of the mountains, and pluck the never fading flowers.

01.0083 There were all kinds of trees around the temple to beautify the place.

01.0084 The box, the pine, the fir, the oil, the myrtle, the pomegranate and the fig tree, bowed down with the weight of its timely figs that made the place look all over glorious.

01.0085 And as we were about to enter the holy temple, Jesus raised his lovely voice and said, only the 144, 000 enter this place, and we shouted Hallelujah.

01.0086 Well bless the Lord, Bro. Jacobs, it is an extra meeting for those who have the seal of the living God.

01.0087 This temple was supported by seven pillars, all of transparent gold, set with pearls most glorious.

01.0088 The glorious things I saw there, I cannot begin to describe.

01.0089 O, that I could talk in the language of Canaan, then could I tell a little of the glory of the upper world; but if faithful you soon will know all about it.

01.0090 I saw there the tables of stone in which the names of the 144, 000, were engraved in letters of gold.

01.0091 After we had beheld the glory of the temple, we went out.

01.0092 Then Jesus left us and went to the city.

01.0093 Soon we heard his lovely voice again, saying: Come my people, you have come out of great tribulation, and done my will, suffered for me, come in to supper, for I will gird myself, and serve you.

01.0094 We shouted Hallelujah, glory, and entered into the city, and I saw a table of pure silver, it was many miles in length, yet our eyes could extend over it.

01.0095 And I saw the fruit of the tree of life, the manna, almonds, figs, pomegranates, grapes, and many other kinds of fruit.

01.0096 We all reclined at the table.

01.0097 I asked Jesus to let me eat of the fruit. He said, not now.

01.0098 Those who eat of the fruit of this land, go back to earth no more.

01.0099 But in a little while if faithful, you shall both eat of the fruit of the tree of life, and drink of the water of the fountain, and he said, you must go back to earth again, and relate to others, what I have revealed to you.

01.00100 Then an angel bore me gently down to this dark world.

01.00101 Sometimes I think I cannot stay here any longer, all things of earth look so dreary.

01.00102 I feel very lonely here, for I have seen a better land. O, that I had wings like a dove, then would I fly away, and be at rest.-- Ellen G. Harmon

Letter from Sister Harmon Falmouth Mass., Feb., 15, 1846

My vision which you published in the Day-Star was written under a deep sense of duty, to you, not expecting you would publish it. Had I for once thought it was to be spread before the many readers of your paper, I should have been more particular and stated some things which I left out.

As the readers of the Day-Star have seen a part of what God has revealed to me, and as the part which I have not written is of vast importance to the Saints; I humbly request you to publish this also in your paper. God showed me the following, one year ago this month:--I saw a throne, and on it sat the Father and his Son Jesus Christ. I gazed on Jesus' countenance and admired his lovely person. The Father's person I could not behold for a cloud of glorious light covered him. I asked Jesus if his Father had a form like himself; He said he had, but I could not behold it; for, said he, if you should for once see the glory of his person, you would cease to exist. Before the throne was the Advent people, the Church, and the world.

I saw a company bowed down before the throne, deeply interested while most of them stood up disinterested and careless. Those who were bowed before the throne would offer up their prayers and look to Jesus, then he would look to his Father and appeared to be pleading with him. Then a light came from the Father to his Son and from him to the praying company. Then I saw an exceeding bright light come from the Father to the Son and from the Son it waved over the people before the throne. But few would receive this great light. Many came out from under it and immediately resisted it. Others were careless and did not cherish the light and it moved off from them. Some cherished it and went and bowed down before the throne with the little praying company. This company all received the light, and rejoiced in it as their countenances shone with its glory. Then I saw the Father rise from the throne and in a flaming chariot go into the Holy of Holies within the vail, and did sit.

There I saw thrones which I had not seen before. Then Jesus rose up from the throne, and most of those who were bowed down rose up with him. And I did not see one ray of light pass from Jesus to the careless multitude after he rose up, and they were left in perfect darkness. Those who rose up when Jesus did, kept their eyes fixed on him as he left the throne, and led them out a little way, then he raised his right arm and we heard his lovely voice saying, wait ye, I am going to my Father to receive the Kingdom. Keep your garments spotless and in a little while I will return from the wedding, and receive you to myself. And I saw a cloudy chariot with wheels like flaming fire.

Angels were all about the chariot as it came where Jesus was; he stepped into it and was borne to the Holiest where the Father sat. Then I beheld Jesus as he was before the Father a great High Priest. On the hem of his garment was a bell and a pomgranite, a bell and a pomgranite.

Then Jesus shewed me the difference between faith and feeling. And I saw those who rose up with Jesus send up their faith to Jesus in the Holiest, and praying, Father give us thy spirit. Then Jesus would breathe on them the Holy Ghost. In the breath was light, power and much love, joy and peace.

Then I turned to look at the company who were still bowed before the throne. They did not know that Jesus had left it. Satan appeared to be by the throne trying to carry on the work of God. I saw them look up to the throne and pray, My Father give us thy spirit. Then Satan would breathe on them an unholy influence. In it there was light and much power, but no sweet love, joy and peace. Satan's object was to keep them deceived and to draw back and deceive God's children. I saw one after another leave the company who were praying to Jesus in the Holiest, go and join those before the throne and they at once received the unholy influence of Satan.

About four months since, I had a vision of events, all in the future. And I saw the time of trouble, such as never was, - Jesus told me it was the time of Jacob's trouble, and that we should be delivered out of it by the voice of God. Just before we entered it, we all received the seal of the living God. Then I saw the four Angels cease to hold the four winds. And I saw famine, pestilence and sword, nation rose against nation, and the whole world was in confusion. Then we cried to God for deliverance day and night till we began to hear the bells on Jesus' garment. And I saw Jesus rise up in the Holiest, and as he came out we heard the tinkling of bells, and knew our High Priest was coming out. Then we heard the voice of God which shook the heavens and earth, and gave the 144,000 the day and hour of Jesus' coming. Then the saints were free, united and full of the glory of God, for he had turned their captivity.

And I saw a flaming cloud come where Jesus stood and he laid off his priestly garment and put on his kingly robe, took his place on the cloud which carried him to the east where it first appeared to the saints on earth, a small black cloud, which was the sign of the Son of Man. While the cloud was passing from the Holiest to the east, which took a number of days, the Synagogue of Satan worshiped at the saints feet. Ellen G. Harmon

Letter from Sister Harmon
Falmouth Mass., Feb. 15, 1846

02.001 My vision which you published in the Day-Star was written under a deep sense of duty, to you, not expecting you would publish it.

02.002 Had I for once thought it was to be spread before the many readers of your paper, I should have been more particular and stated some things which I left out.

02.003 As the readers of the Day-Star have seen a part of what God has revealed to me, and as the part which I have not written is of vast importance to the Saints; I humbly request you to publish this also in your paper.

02.004 God showed me the following, one year ago this month:--I saw a throne, and on it sat the Father and his Son Jesus Christ.

02.005 I gazed on Jesus' countenance and admired his lovely person.

02.006 The Fathers person I could not behold for a cloud of glorious light covered him. I asked Jesus if his Father had a form like himself; He said he had, but I could not behold it; for, said he, if you should for once see the glory of his person, you would cease to exist.

02.007 Before the throne was the Advent people, the Church, and the world.

02.008 I saw a company bowed down before the throne, deeply interested while most of them stood up disinterested and careless.

02.009 Those who were bowed before the throne would offer up their prayers and look to Jesus, then he would look to his Father and appeared to be pleading with him.

02.0010 Then a light came from the Father to his Son and from him to the praying company.

02.0011 Then I saw an exceeding bright light come from the Father to the Son and from the Son it waved over the people before the throne.

02.0012 But few would receive this great light. Many came out from under it and immediately resisted it.

02.0013 Others were careless and did not cherish the light and it moved off from them.

02.0014 Some cherished it and went and bowed down before the throne with the little praying company.

02.0015 This company all received the light, and rejoiced in it as their countenances shone with its glory.

02.0016 Then I saw the Father rise from the throne and in a flaming chariot go into the Holy of Holies within the vail, and did sit.

02.0017 There I saw thrones which I had not seen before.

02.0018 Then Jesus rose up from the throne, and most of those who were bowed down rose up with him.

02.0019 And I did not see one ray of light pass from Jesus to the careless multitude after he rose up, and they were left in perfect darkness.

02.0020 Those who rose up when Jesus did, kept their eyes fixed on him as he left the throne, and led them out a little way, then he raised his right arm and we heard his lovely voice saying, wait ye, I am going to my Father to receive the Kingdom.

02.0021 Keep your garments spotless and in a little while I will return from the wedding, and receive you to myself.

02.0022 And I saw a cloudy chariot with wheels like flaming fire.

02.0023 Angels were all about the chariot as it came where Jesus was; he stepped into it and was borne to the Holiest where the Father sat.

02.0024 Then I beheld Jesus as he was before the Father a great High Priest.

02.0025 On the hem of his garment was a bell and a pomgranite, a bell and a pomgranite.

02.0026 Then Jesus shewed me the difference between faith and feeling.

02.0027 And I saw those who rose up with Jesus send up their faith to Jesus in the Holiest, and praying, Father give us thy spirit.

02.0028 Then Jesus would breathe on them the Holy Ghost.

02.0029 In the breath was light, power and much love, joy and peace. Then I turned to look at the company who were still bowed before the throne.

02.0030 They did not know that Jesus had left it. Satan appeared to be by the throne trying to carry on the work of God.

02.0031 I saw them look up to the throne and pray, My Father give us thy spirit.

02.0032 Then Satan would breathe on them an unholy influence.

02.0033 In it there was light and much power, but no sweet love, joy and peace.

02.0034 Satan's object was to keep them deceived and to draw back and deceive God's children.

Broadside 1 –
To the Little Remnant Scattered Abroad
April 6, 1846

01.001 As God has shown me in holy vision the travels of the Advent people to the Holy City, and the rich reward to be given those who wait the return of their Lord from the wedding, it may be my duty to give you a short sketch of what God has revealed to me.

01.002 The dear saints have got many trials to pass through.

01.003 But our light afflictions, which are but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory—while we look not at the things which are seen, for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

01.004 I have tried to bring back a good report, and a few grapes from the heavenly Canaan, for which many would stone me, as the congregation bade stone Caleb and Joshua for their report, (Num. 14:10.)

01.005 But I declare to you, my brethren and sisters in the Lord, it is a goodly land, and we are well able to go up and possess it.

01.006 While praying at the family altar, the Holy Ghost fell on me, and I seemed to be rising higher and higher, far above the dark world.

01.007 I turned to look for the Advent people in the world, but could not find them—when a voice said to me, "Look again, and look a little higher."

01.008 At this I raised my eyes and saw a straight and narrow path, cast up high above the world.

01.009 On this path the Advent people were traveling to the City, which was at the farther end of the path.

01.0010 They had a bright light set up behind them at the first end of the path, which an angel told me was the Midnight Cry.

01.0011 This light shone all along the path and gave light for their feet so they might not stumble.

01.0012 And if they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the City, they were safe.

01.0013 But soon some grew weary, and they said the City was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before.

01.0014 Then Jesus would encourage them by raising his glorious right arm, and from his arm came a glorious light which waved over the Advent band, and they shouted Hallelujah!

01.0015 Others rashly denied the light behind them, and said that it was not God that had led them out so far.

01.0016 The light behind them went out leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and got their eyes off the mark and lost sight of Jesus, and fell off the path down in the dark and wicked world below.

01.0017 It was just as impossible for them to get on the path again and go to the City, as all the wicked world which God had rejected.

01.0018 They fell all the way along the path one after another, until we heard the voice of God like many waters, which gave us the day and hour of Jesus' coming.

01.0019 The living saints, 144,000 in number, knew and understood the voice, while the wicked thought it was thunder and an earthquake.

01.0020 When God spake the time, he poured on us the Holy Ghost, and our faces began to light up and shine with the glory of God as Moses did when he came down from Mount Sinai, (Ex. 34:30-34).

01.0021 By this time the 144,000 were all sealed and perfectly united.

01.0022 On their foreheads was written, God, New Jerusalem, and a glorious Star containing Jesus' new name.

01.0023 At our happy, holy state the wicked were enraged, and would rush violently up to lay hands on us to thrust us in prison, when we would stretch forth the hand in the name of the Lord, and the wicked would fall helpless to the ground.

01.0024 Then it was that the synagogue of Satan knew that God had loved us who could wash one another's feet, and salute the holy brethren with a holy kiss, and they worshipped at our feet.

01.0025 Soon our eyes were drawn to the East, for a small black cloud had appeared about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the Sign of the Son of Man.

01.0026 We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer, lighter, and brighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud.

01.0027 The bottom appeared like fire, a rainbow was over it, around the cloud were ten thousand angels singing a most lovely song.

01.0028 And on it sat the Son of Man, on his head were crowns, his hair was white and curly and lay on his shoulders.

01.0029 His feet had the appearance of fire, in his right hand was a sharp sickle, in his left a silver trumpet.

01.0030 His eyes were as a flame of fire, which searched his children through and through.

01.0031 Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness.

01.0032 Then we all cried out, who shall be able to stand?

01.0033 Is my robe spotless?

01.0034 Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was sometime of awful silence, when Jesus spoke.

01.0035 Those who have clean hands and a pure heart shall be able to stand, my grace is sufficient for you.

01.0036 At this, our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart.

01.0037 And the angels struck a note higher and sung again while the cloud drew still nearer the earth.

01.0038 Then Jesus' silver trumpet sounded, as he descended on the cloud, wrapped in flames of fire.

01.0039 He gazed on the graves of the sleeping saints, then raised his eyes and hands to heaven and cried out, Awake! Awake! Awake! ye that sleep in the dust, and arise.

01.0040 Then there was a mighty earthquake.

01.0041 The graves opened, and the dead came up clothed with immortality.

01.0042 The 144,000 shouted, Hallelujah!

01.0043 as they recognized their friends who had been torn from them by death, and in the same moment we were changed and caught up together with them to meet the Lord in the air.

01.0044 We all entered the cloud together, and were seven days ascending to the sea of glass, when Jesus brought along the crowns and with his own right hand placed them on our heads.

01.0045 He gave us harps of gold and palms of victory.

01.0046 Here on the sea of glass the 144,000 stood in a perfect square.

01.0047 Some of them had very bright crowns, others not so bright.

01.0048 Some crowns appeared heavy with stars, while others had but few.

01.0049 All were perfectly satisfied with their crowns.

01.0050 And they were all clothed with a glorious white mantle from their shoulders to their feet.

01.0051 Angels were all about us as we marched over the sea of glass to the gate of the City.

01.0052 Jesus raised his mighty glorious arm, laid hold of the gate and swung it back on its golden hinges, and said to us, You have washed your robes in my blood, stood stiffly for my truth, enter in.

01.0053 We all marched in and felt we had a perfect right in the City.

01.0054 Here we saw the tree of life, and the throne of God.

01.0055 Out of the throne came a pure river of water, and on either side of the river was the tree of life.

01.0056 On one side of the river was a trunk of a tree and a trunk on the other side of the river, both of pure transparent gold.

01.0057 At first I thought I saw two trees.

01.0058 I looked again and saw they were united at the top in one tree.

01.0059 So it was the tree of life, on either side of the river of life; its branches bowed to the place where we stood; and the fruit was glorious, which looked like gold mixed with silver.

01.0060 We all went under the tree, and sat down to look at the glory of the place, when brothers Fitch and Stockman, who had preached the gospel of the kingdom, and whom God had laid in the grave to save them, came up to us and asked us what we had passed through while they were sleeping.

01.0061 We tried to call up our greatest trials, but they looked so small compared with the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory that surrounded us, that we could not speak them out, and we all cried out Hallelujah, heaven is cheap enough, and we touched our glorious harps and made heaven's arches ring.

01.0062 And as we were gazing at the glories of the place our eyes were attracted upwards to something that had the appearance of silver.

01.0063 I asked Jesus to let me see what was within there.

01.0064 In a moment we were winging our way upward, and entering in; here we saw good old father Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Noah, Daniel, and many like them.

01.0065 And I saw a veil with a heavy fringe of silver and gold as a border on the bottom; it was very beautiful.

01.0066 I asked Jesus what was within the veil.

01.0067 He raised it with his own right arm, and bade me take heed.

01.0068 I saw there a glorious ark, overlaid with pure gold, and it had a glorious border, resembling Jesus' crowns; on it were two bright angels--their wings were spread over the ark as they sat on each end, with their faces turned towards each other and looking downward.

01.0069 In the ark, beneath where the angels wings were spread, was a golden pot of Manna, of a yellowish cast; and I saw a rod, which Jesus said was Aaron's; I saw it bud, blossom and bear fruit.

01.0070 And I saw two long golden rods, on which hung silver wires, and on the wires most glorious grapes; one cluster was more than a man here could carry.

01.0071 And I saw Jesus step up and take off the manna, almonds, grapes and pomegranates, and bear them down to the city, and place them on the supper table.

01.0072 I stepped up to see how much was taken away, and there was just as much left; and we shouted Hallelujah--Amen.

01.0073 We all descended from this place down into the city, and with Jesus at our head we all descended from the city down to this earth, on a great and mighty mountain, which could not bear Jesus up, and it parted asunder, and there was a mighty plain.

01.0074 Then we looked up and saw the great city, with twelve foundations, twelve gates, three on each side, and an angel at each gate, and all cried out, "the city, the great city, it's coming, its coming down from God, out of heaven;" and it came and settled on the place where we stood.

01.0075 Then we began to look at the glorious things outside of the city.

01.0076 There I saw most glorious houses, that had the appearance of silver, supported by four pillars, set with pearls, most glorious to behold, which were to be inhabited by the saints; in them was a golden shelf;

01.0077 I saw many of the saints go into the houses, take off their glittering crowns and lay them on the shelf, then go out into the field by the houses to do something with the earth; not as we have to do with the earth here; no, no.

01.0078 A glorious light shone all about their heads, and they were continually shouting and offering praises to God.

01.0079 And I saw another field full of all kind of flowers, and as I plucked them, I cried out, well they will never fade.

01.0080 Next I saw a field of tall grass, most glorious to behold; it was living green, and had a reflection of silver and gold, as it waved proudly to the glory of King Jesus.

01.0081 Then we entered a field full of all kinds of beasts—the lion, the lamb, the leopard and the wolf, altogether in perfect union; we passed through the midst of them, and they followed on peaceably after.

01.0082 Then we entered a wood, not like the dark woods we have here, no, no; but light, and all over glorious;

01.0083 the branches of the trees waved to and fro, and we all cried out, "we will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in this woods."

01.0084 We passed through the wood, for we were on our way to Mount Zion.

01.0085 As we were traveling along, we met a company who were also gazing at the glories of the place.

01.0086 I noticed red as a border on their garments; their crowns were brilliant; their robes were pure white.

01.0087 As we greeted them, I asked Jesus who they were?

01.0088 He said they were martyrs that had been slain for him.

01.0089 With them was an innumerable company of little ones; they had a hem of red on their garments also.

01.0090 Mount Zion was just before us, and on the Mount sat a glorious temple, and about it were seven other mountains, on which grew roses and lilies, and I saw the little ones climb, or if they chose, use their little wings and fly to the top of the mountains, and pluck the never fading flowers.

01.0091 There were all kinds of trees around the temple to beautify the place; the box, the pine, the fir, the oil, the myrtle, the pomegranate, and the fig tree bowed down with the weight of its timely figs, that made the place look all over glorious.

01.0092 And as we were about to enter the holy temple, Jesus raised his lovely voice and said, only the 144,000 enter this place, and we shouted Hallelujah.

01.0093 Well, bless the Lord, dear brethren and sisters, it is an extra meeting for those who have the seal of the living God.

01.0094 This temple was supported by seven pillars, all of transparent gold, set with pearls most glorious.

01.0095 The glorious things I saw there, I cannot begin to describe.

01.0096 O, that I could talk in the language of Canaan, then could I tell a little of the glory of the upper world; but, if faithful, you soon will know all about it.

01.0097 I saw there the tables of stone in which the names of the 144,000, were engraved in letters of gold; after we had beheld the glory of the temple, we went out.

01.0098 Then Jesus left us, and went to the city; soon, we heard his lovely voice again, saying—

01.0099 "Come my people, you have come out of great tribulation, and done my will; suffered for me; come in to supper, for I will gird myself, and serve you."

01.00100 We shouted Hallelujah, glory; and entered into the city; and I saw a table of pure silver, it was many miles in length, yet our eyes could extend over it.

01.00101 And I saw the fruit of the tree of life, the manna, almonds, figs, pomegranates, grapes, and many other kinds of fruit.

01.00102 We all reclined at the table.

01.00103 I asked Jesus to let me eat of the fruit. He said, not now.

01.00104 Those who eat of the fruit of this land, go back to earth no more.

01.00105 But in a little while, if faithful, you shall both eat of the fruit of the tree of life, and drink of the water of the fountain; and he said, you must go back to the earth again, and relate to others, what I have revealed to you.

01.00106 Then an angel bore me gently down to this dark world.

01.00107 Sometimes I think I cannot stay here any longer, all things of earth look so dreary—I feel very lonely here, for I have seen a better land.

01.00108 O, that I had wings like a dove, then would I fly away, and be at rest.

01.00109 In February, 1845, I had a vision of events commencing with the Midnight Cry.

01.00110 I saw a throne and on it sat the Father and the Son.

01.00111 I gazed on Jesus' countenance and admired his lovely person.

01.00112 The Father's person I could not behold, for a cloud of glorious light covered him.

01.00113 I asked Jesus if his Father had a form like himself.

01.00114 He said he had, but I could not behold it, for said he if you should once behold the glory of his person you would cease to exist.

01.00115 Before the throne I saw the Advent people, the church, and the world.

01.00116 I saw a company, bowed down before the throne, deeply interested, while the most of them stood up disinterested and careless.

01.00117 Those who were bowed before the throne would offer up their prayers and look to Jesus; then he would look to his Father, and appeared to be pleading with Him.

01.00118 A light would come from the Father to the Son, and from the Son to the praying company.

01.00119 Then I saw an exceeding bright light come from the Father to the Son, and from the Son it waved over the people before the throne.

01.00120 But few would receive this great light; many came out from under it and immediately resisted it; others were careless and did not cherish the light, and it moved off from them; some cherished it, and went and bowed down with the little praying company.

01.00121 This company all received the light, and rejoiced in it, as their countenances shone with its glory.

01.00122 And I saw the Father rise from the throne, and in a flaming Chariot go into the Holy of Holies, within the veil, and did sit.

01.00123 There I saw thrones that I had never seen before.

01.00124 Then Jesus rose up from the throne, and the most of those who were bowed down arose with Him; and I did not see one ray of light pass from Jesus to the careless multitude after he arose, and they were left in perfect darkness.

01.00125 Those who rose up when Jesus did, kept their eyes fixed on Him as He left the throne and led them out a little way.

01.00126 Then He raised His right arm and we heard his lovely voice saying, "Wait here--I am going to my Father to receive the Kingdom; keep your garments spotless, and in a little while I will return from the wedding and receive you to myself."

01.00127 And I saw a cloudy chariot, with wheels like flaming fire, and Angels were all around it as it came where Jesus was.

01.00128 He stepped into the chariot and was borne to the Holiest where the Father sat.

01.00129 There I beheld Jesus, as He was standing before the Father, a great High Priest.

01.00130 On the hem of His garment was a bell and pomegranate.

01.00131 Then Jesus shew me the difference between faith and feeling.

01.00132 And I saw those who rose up with Jesus send up their faith to Him in the Holiest, and pray--my Father give us thy Spirit.

01.00133 Then Jesus would breathe upon them the Holy Ghost.

01.00134 In the breath was light, power, and much love, joy and peace.

01.00135 Then I turned to look at the company who were still bowed before the throne; they did not know that Jesus had left it.—

01.00136 Satan appeared to be by the throne, trying to carry on the work of God; I saw them look up to the throne and pray, my Father give us thy Spirit;

01.00137 then Satan would breathe upon them an unholy influence; in it there was light and much power, but no sweet love, joy and peace.

01.00138 Satan's object was to keep them deceived, and to draw back and deceive God's children.

01.00139 I saw one after another leave the company who were praying to Jesus in the Holiest, and go and join those before the throne, and they at once received the unholy influence of Satan.

01.00140 About four months since I had a vision of events all in the future.

01.00141 I saw the time of trouble, such as never was.

01.00142 Jesus told me it was the time of Jacob's trouble, and that we should be delivered out of it by the voice of God.

01.00143 Then I saw the four angels cease to hold the four winds.

01.00144 And I saw famine, pestilence and sword--nation rose against nation, and the whole world was in confusion.

01.00145 Then we cried to God day and night for deliverance, until we began to hear the bells on Jesus' garment.

01.00146 And I saw Jesus rise up in the Holiest, and as he came out we heard the tinkling of the bells and knew that our High Priest was coming out.

01.00147 Then we heard the voice of God which shook the heavens and the earth, and gave the 144,000 the day and hour of Jesus coming.

01.00148 Then the saints were free, united, and full of the glory of God, for he has turned their captivity.

01.00149 And I saw a flaming cloud come where Jesus' stood.

02.001 "This is that which was spoken of by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: and on my servants, and on my handmaidens, I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy."

02.002 At the commencement of the Holy Sabbath, (Jan. 5,) we engaged in prayer with Bro. Belden's family at Rocky Hill, Ct., and the Holy Ghost fell upon us.

02.003 I was taken off in Vision to the most holy place, where I saw Jesus still interceding for Israel.

02.004 On the bottom of his garment was a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate.

02.005 Then I saw that Jesus would not leave the most holy place until every case was decided either for salvation or destruction: and that the wrath of God could not come until Jesus had finished his work in the most holy place--laid off his priestly attire and clothed himself with the garments of vengeance.

02.006 Then Jesus will step out from between the Father and man, and God will keep silent no longer; but pour out his wrath on those who have rejected his truth. I saw that the anger of the nations, the wrath of God, and the time to judge the dead, were separate events, one following the other.

02.007 I saw that Michael had not stood up, and that the time of trouble, such as never was, had not yet commenced.

02.008 The nations are now getting angry, but when our High Priest has finished his work in the Sanctuary, he will stand up, put on the garments of vengeance, and then the seven last plagues will be poured out.

02.009 I saw that the four angels would hold the four winds until Jesus work was done in the Sanctuary, and then will come the seven last plagues.

02.0010 These plagues enraged the wicked against the righteous, and they thought that we had brought them down upon them, and if they could rid the earth of us, then the plagues would be stayed.

02.0011 A decree went forth to slay the saints, which caused them to cry day and night for deliverance.

02.0012 This was the time of Jacob's trouble.

02.0013 Then all the saints cried out with anguish of spirit, and were delivered by the Voice of God. Then the 144,000 triumphed.

02.0014 Their faces were lighted up with the glory of God.

02.0015 Then I was shown a company who were howling in agony.

02.0016 On their garments was written in large characters--thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting.

02.0017 I asked who this company were. The angel said," these are they who have once kept the Sabbath and have given it up."

02.0018 I heard them cry with a loud voice--"we have believed in thy coming, and taught it with energy."

02.0019 And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud.

02.0020 I saw they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet--trodden the Sabbath underfoot, and that is why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting.

02.0021 Then my attending angel directed me to the city again, where I saw four angels winging their way to the gate of the city, and were just presenting the golden card to the angel at the gate.

02.0022 Then I saw another angel swiftly flying from the direction of the most excellent glory, and crying with a loud voice to the other angels, and waving something up and down in his hand.

02.0023 I asked my attending angel for an explanation of what I saw. He told me that I could see no more then, but he would shortly show me what those things that I then saw meant.

02.0024 Sabbath afternoon one of our number was sick, and requested prayers that he might be healed.

02.0025 We all united in applying to the Physician who never lost a case, and while healing power came down, and the sick was healed, the Spirit fell upon me and I was taken off in vision.

02.0026 I saw the state of some who stood on present truth, but disregarded the visions, --the way God had chosen to teach in some cases, those who erred from Bible truth.

02.0027 I saw that in striking against the visions they did not strike against the worm--the feeble instrument that God spake through; but against the Holy Ghost.

02.0028 I saw it was a small thing to speak against the instrument, but it was dangerous to slight the words of God.

02.0029 I saw if they were in error and God chose to show them their errors through visions, and they disregarded the teachings of God through visions, they would be left to take their own way, and run in the way of error, and think they were right, until they would find it out too late.

02.0030 Then in the time of trouble I heard them cry to God in agony--"Why didst thou not show us our wrong, that we might have got right and been ready for this time?"

02.0031 Then an angel pointed to them and said--"My Father taught, but you would not be taught.--He spoke through visions, but you disregarded his voice, and he gave you up to your own ways, to be filled with your own doings."

02.0032 Then I saw four angels who had a work to do on the earth, and were on their way to accomplish it. Jesus was clothed with Priestly garments.

02.0033 He gazed in pity on the remnant, then raised his hands upward, and with a voice of deep pity cried—"My Blood, Father, my Blood, my Blood, my Blood."

02.0034 Then I saw an exceeding bright light come from God, who sat upon the great white throne, and was shed all about Jesus.

02.0035 Then I saw an angel with a commission from Jesus, swiftly flying to the four angels who had a work to do on the earth, and waving something up and down in his hand, and crying with a loud voice--"Hold,! Hold! Hold! Hold! until the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads."

02.0036 --I asked my accompanying angel the meaning of what I heard, and what the four angels were about to do.

02.0037 He said to me that it was God that restrained the powers, and that he gave his angels charge over things on the earth, and that the four angels had power from God to hold the four winds, and that they were about to let the four winds go, and while they had started on their mission to let them go, the merciful eye of Jesus gazed on the remnant that were not all sealed, then he raised his hands to the Father and plead with him that he had spilled his blood for them.

02.0038 Then another angel was commissioned to fly swiftly to the four angels, and bid them hold until the servants of God were sealed with the seal of the living God in their foreheads.

02.0039 Dec. 16, 1848, the Lord gave me a view of the shaking of the powers of the heavens.

02.0040 I saw that when the Lord said "heaven" (in giving the signs recorded by Matt., Mark and Luke) he meant heaven, and when he said "earth" he meant earth.

02.0041 The powers of heaven are the Sun, Moon, and Stars: they rule in the heavens.

02.0042 The powers of earth are those who bear rule on the earth.--The powers of heaven will be shaken at the voice of God.

02.0043 Then the Sun, Moon and Stars will be moved out of their places.

02.0044 They will not pass away, but be shaken by the voice of God.

02.0045 Dark, heavy clouds came up, and clashed against each other.

02.0046 The atmosphere parted and rolled back, then we could look up through the open space in Orion, from whence came the voice of God.

02.0047 The Holy City will come down through that open space.

02.0048 I saw that the powers of earth are now being shaken, and that events come in order.

02.0049 War, and rumors of war,--sword, famine and pestilence, are first to shake the powers of earth, then the voice of God will shake the Sun, Moon and Stars, and this earth also.

02.0050 I saw that the shaking of the powers in Europe is not (as some teach) the shaking of the powers of heaven, but it is the shaking of the angry nations.

02.0051 I have seen the tender love that God has for his people, and it is very great.

02.0052 I saw an angel over every saint, with their wings spread about them: and if the saints wept through discouragement, or were in danger, the angel that ever attended them would fly quickly upward to carry the tidings, and the angels in the city would cease to sing.

02.0053 Then Jesus would commission another angel to descend to encourage, watch over and try to keep them from going out of the narrow path: but, if they did not take heed to the watchful care of these angels, and would not be comforted by them, and continued to go astray, the angels would look sad and weep.

02.0054 Then they would bear the tidings upward, and all the angels in the city would weep, and then with a loud voice say, Amen.

02.0055 But if the saints fixed their eyes on the prize before them, and glorified God by praising him, then the angels would bear the glad tidings to the city, and the angels in the city would touch their golden harps and sing with a loud voice--Alleluia! and the heavenly arches would ring with their lovely songs.

02.0056 I will here state, that there is perfect order and harmony in the holy city.

02.0057 All the angels that are commissioned to visit the earth hold a golden card, which they present to the angels at the gates of the city as they pass in and out.

02.0058 Heaven is a good place.

02.0059 I long to be there, and behold my lovely Jesus, who gave his life for me, and be changed into his glorious image.

02.0060 Oh! for language to express the glory of the bright world to come.

02.0061 I thirst for the living streams that make glad the city of our God.

02.0062 The Lord has given me a view of other worlds.

02.0063 Wings were given me, and an angel attended me from the city to a place that was bright and glorious.

02.0064 The grass of the place was living green, and the birds there warbled a sweet song.

02.0065 The inhabitants of the place were of all sizes, they were noble, majestic and lovely.

02.0066 They bore the express image of Jesus, and their countenances beamed with holy joy, expressive of the freedom and happiness of the place.

02.0067 I asked one of them why they were so much more lovely than those on the earth.

02.0068 The reply was--"we have lived in strict obedience to the commandments of God, and have not fallen by disobedience, like those on the earth."

02.0069 Then I saw two trees, one looked much like the tree of life in the city.

02.0070 The fruit of both looked beautiful; but of one they could not eat.

02.0071 They had power to eat of both, but were forbidden to eat of one.

02.0072 Then my attending angel said to me--"none in this place have tasted of the forbidden tree; but if they should eat they would fall."

02.0073 Then I was taken to a world which had seven moons.

02.0074 There I saw good old Enoch, who had been translated.

02.0075 On his right arm he bore a glorious palm, and on each leaf was written Victory.

02.0076 Around his head was a dazzling white wreath, and leaves on the wreath, and in the middle of each was written Purity; and around the leaf were stones of various colors, that shone brighter than the stars, and cast a reflection upon the letters, and magnified them.

02.0077 On the back part of his head was a bow that confined the wreath, and upon the bow was written Holiness.

02.0078 Above the wreath was a lovely crown that shone brighter than the sun.

02.0079 I asked him if this was the place he was taken to from the earth.

02.0080 He said, "It is not; but the city is my home, and I have come to visit this place."

02.0081 He moved about the place as if perfectly at home.

02.0082 I begged of my attending angel to let me remain in that place.

02.0083 I could not bear the thought of coming back to this dark world again.

02.0084 Then the angel said--"you must go back, and if you are faithful, you, with the 144,000 shall have the privilege of visiting all the worlds and viewing the handy work of God."

02.0085 For two years past, the Lord has shown me in vision, repeatedly, that it is contrary to the Bible to make any provision

02.0086 for our temporal wants in the time of trouble.

02.0087 I saw that if the saints have food laid up by them, or in the fields, in the time of trouble when sword, famine, and pestilence are in the land, it will be taken from them by violent hands and strangers would reap their fields.

02.0088 Then will be the time for us to trust wholly in God, and he will sustain us.

02.0089 I saw that our bread and water would be sure at that time, and we should not lack, or suffer hunger.

02.0090 --The Lord has shown me that some of his children would fear when they see the price of food rising, and they would buy food and lay it by for the time of trouble.

02.0091 Then in a time of need, I saw them go to their food and look at it, and it had bred worms, and was full of living creatures, and not fit for use.

02.0092 About one week since, the Lord showed me in vision, that houses and lands
02.0093 would be of no use in the time of trouble, and in that time they could not be disposed of.

02.0094 I saw it was the will of God that the saints should cut loose from every encumbrance -- dispose of their houses and lands before the time of trouble comes, and make a covenant with God by sacrifice.

02.0095 I saw they would sell if they laid their property on the altar and earnestly inquired for duty.

02.0096 Then God will teach them when to dispose of these things.

02.0097 Then they will be free in the time of trouble, and have no clogs to weigh them down.

02.0098 I saw if they held on to their property, and did not inquire duty of the Lord, he would not make duty known, and they would be permitted to keep their property, and then in the time of trouble their property would come up before them like a mountain to crush them.

02.0099 Then they tried to get rid of it, but could not.

02.00100 I heard them mourn like this,--the cause was languishing--God's people were suffering for truth, and we made no effort to supply the lack, and now our property is useless.

02.00101 Oh! that we had let it go, and laid up treasure in heaven.

02.00102 I saw a sacrifice did not increase, but decrease, and was consumed.

02.00103 I also saw that God had not required all of his people to dispose of their property at the same time, but in a time of need he would teach them, if they desired to be taught, when to sell and how much to sell.

02.00104 I saw that some had been required to dispose of their property in past time to sustain the advent cause, while he permitted others to keep theirs until a time of need.

02.00105 Then as the cause needs it, their duty is to sell.

02.00106 Now is the time to lay up treasure in heaven, and to set our hearts in order, ready for the time of trouble.

02.00107 Those only who have clean hands and a pure heart will stand that trying time.

02.00108 Now is the time for the law of God to be in our minds (foreheads), and written in our hearts.

02.00109 The Lord has shown me the danger of letting our minds be filled with worldly thoughts and cares.

02.00110 I saw that some minds were led away from present truth and a love of the holy Bible, by reading other exciting books; and others were filled with perplexity and care for what they shall eat, drink and wear.

02.00111 I saw some, looking too far off for the coming of the Lord.

02.00112 Time has continued on a few years longer than they expected, therefore they think it may continue a few years more, and in this way their minds are being led from present truth, out after the world.

02.00113 In these things I saw great danger; for if the mind is filled with other things, present truth is shut out, and there is no place in our foreheads for the seal of the living God.

02.00114 This seal is the Sabbath. I saw that the time for Jesus to be in the most holy place was nearly finished, and that time can last but a very little longer; and what leisure time we have should be spent in searching the Bible, which is to judge us in the last day.

02.00115 My Dear Brethren and Sisters:--Let the commandments of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ be in your minds continually, and let them crowd worldly thoughts and cares from the mind.

02.00116 When you lie down, and when you rise up, let them be your meditation.

02.00117 Live, and act wholly in reference to the coming of the Son of Man.

02.00118 The sealing time is very short, and soon will be over.

02.00119 Now is the time to make our calling and election sure, while the four angels are holding the four winds.

02.00120 If any among us are sick, let us not dishonor God by applying to earthly Physicians, but apply to the God of Israel.

02.00121 If we follow his directions (James 5:14, 15) the sick will be healed.

02.00122 God's promise cannot fail.

02.00123 Have faith in God, and trust wholly in him, that when Christ who is our life shall appear we may appear with him in glory.

Broadside 3 – A Vision
April 7, 1847

03.001 Dear Brother Bates:--Last Sabbath we met with the dear brethren and sisters here, who meet at Bro. Howland's.

03.002 We felt an unusual spirit of prayer.

03.003 And as we prayed, the Holy Ghost fell upon us.

03.004 We were very happy.

03.005 Soon I was lost to earthly things, and was wrapped up in a vision of God's glory.

03.006 I saw an angel swiftly flying to me. He quickly carried me from the earth to the Holy City.

03.007 In the city I saw a temple, which I entered.

03.008 I passed through a door before I came to the first veil.

03.009 This veil was raised, and I passed into the Holy Place.

03.0010 Here I saw the Altar of Incense.

03.0011 Before the altar was the table, on which was the candlestick, with seven lamps, and the showbread, &c.

03.0012 After viewing the glory of the Holy, Jesus raised the second veil, and I passed into the Holy of Holies.

03.0013 In the Holiest I saw an ark; on the top and sides of it was purest gold.

03.0014 On each end of the ark was a lovely Cherub, with their wings spread out over it.

03.0015 Their faces were turned towards each other, and they looked downwards.

03.0016 Between the angels was a golden censor.

03.0017 Above the ark, where the angels stood, was an exceeding bright glory, that appeared like a throne where God dwelt.

03.0018 Jesus stood by the ark.

03.0019 And as the saints' prayers came up to Jesus, the incense in the censor would smoke, and He offered up the prayers of the saints with the smoke of the incense to His Father.

03.0020 In the ark, was the golden pot of manna, Aaron's rod that budded and the tables of stone which folded together like a book.

03.0021 Jesus opened them, and I saw the ten commandments written on them with the finger of God.

03.0022 On one table was four, and on the other six.

03.0023 The four on the first table shone brighter than the other six.

03.0024 But the fourth (the Sabbath commandment,) shone above them all; for the Sabbath was set apart to be kept in honor of God's holy name.

03.0025 The holy Sabbath looked glorious--a halo of glory was all around it.

03.0026 I saw that the Sabbath was not nailed to the cross.

03.0027 If it was, the other nine commandments were; and we are at liberty to go forth and break them all, as well as to break the fourth.

03.0028 I saw that God had not changed the Sabbath, for He never changes.

03.0029 But the Pope had changed it from the seventh to the first day of the week; for he was to change times and laws.

03.0030 And I saw that if God had changed the Sabbath, from the seventh to the first day, He would have changed the writing of the Sabbath commandment, written on the tables of stone, which are now in the ark, in the Most Holy Place of the Temple in heaven; and it would read thus: The first day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.

03.0031 But I saw that it read the same as when written on the tables of stone by the finger of God, and delivered to Moses in Sinai, "But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God."

03.0032 I saw that the holy Sabbath is, and will be, the separating wall between the true Israel of God and unbelievers; and that the Sabbath is the great question, to unite the hearts of God's dear waiting saints.

03.0033 And if one believed, and kept the Sabbath, and received the blessing attending it, and then gave it up, and broke the holy commandment, they would shut the gates of the Holy City against themselves, as sure as there was a God that rules in heaven above.

03.0034 I saw that God had children, who do not see and keep the Sabbath.

03.0035 They had not rejected the light on it.

03.0036 And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth, and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully.

03.0037 This enraged the church, and nominal Adventists, as they could not refute the Sabbath truth.

03.0038 And at this time, God's chosen all saw clearly that we had the truth, and they came out and endured the persecution with us.

03.0039 And I saw the sword, famine, pestilence, and great confusion in the land.

03.0040 The wicked thought that we had brought the judgments down on them.

03.0041 They rose up and took counsel to rid the earth of us, thinking that then the evil would be stayed.

03.0042 I saw all that "would not receive the mark of the Beast, and of his Image, in their foreheads or in their hands," could not buy or sell.

03.0043 I saw that the number (666) of the Image Beast was made up; and that it was the beast that changed the Sabbath, and the Image Beast had followed on after, and kept the Pope's, and not God's Sabbath.

03.0044 And all we were required to do, was to give up God's Sabbath, and keep the Pope's, and then we should have the mark of the Beast, and of his Image.

03.0045 In the time of trouble, we all fled from the cities and villages, but were pursued by the wicked, who entered the houses of the saints with the sword.

03.0046 They raised the sword to kill us, but it broke, and fell, as powerless as a straw.

03.0047 Then we all cried day and night for deliverance, and the cry came up before God.

03.0048 The sun came up, and the moon stood still.

03.0049 The streams ceased to flow.

03.0050 Dark heavy clouds came up, and clashed against each other.

03.0051 But there was one clear place of settled glory, from whence came the voice of God like many waters, which shook the heavens, and the earth.

03.0052 The sky opened and shut, and was in commotion.

03.0053 The mountains shook like a reed in the wind, and cast out rugged rocks all around.

03.0054 The sea boiled like a pot, and cast out stones upon the land.

03.0055 And as God spoke the day and hour of Jesus coming, and delivered the everlasting covenant to His people, He spoke one sentence, and then paused, while the words were rolling through the earth!

03.0056 The Israel of God stood with their eyes fixed upwards, listening to the words as they came from the mouth of Jehovah, and rolled through the earth like peals of loudest thunder!

03.0057 It was awfully solemn.

03.0058 At the end of every sentence, the saints shouted, Glory! Hallelujah!

03.0059 Their countenances were lighted up with the glory of God; and they shone with the glory as Moses' face did when he came down from Sinai.

03.0060 The wicked could not look on them, for the glory.

03.0061 And when the never ending blessing was pronounced on those who had honored God, in keeping His Sabbath holy, there was a mighty shout of victory over the Beast, and over his Image.

03.0062 Then commenced the jubilee, when the land should rest.

03.0063 I saw the pious slave rise in triumph and victory, and shake off the chains that bound him, while his wicked master was in confusion, and knew not what to do; for the wicked could not understand the words of the voice of God.

03.0064 Soon appeared the great white cloud. It looked more lovely than ever before.

03.0065 On it sat the Son of Man.

03.0066 At first we did not see Jesus on the cloud, but as it drew near the earth, we could behold his lovely person.

03.0067 This cloud when it first appeared was the Sign of the Son of Man in heaven.

03.0068 The voice of the Son of God called forth the sleeping saints, clothed with a glorious immortality.

03.0069 The living saints were changed in a moment, and caught up with them in the cloudy chariot.

03.0070 It looked all over glorious as it rolled upwards.

03.0071 On either side of the chariot were wings, and beneath it wheels.

03.0072 And as the chariot rolled upwards, the wheels cried Holy, and the wings as they moved, cried Holy, and the retinue of Holy Angels around the cloud cried Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty.

03.0073 And the saints in the cloud cried Glory, Hallelujah.

03.0074 And the cloudy chariot rolled upwards to the Holy City.

03.0075 Jesus threw open the gates of the Golden City, and led us in.

03.0076 Here we were made welcome, for we had kept the "Commandments of God," and had a "right to the tree of life."

From your sister in the blessed hope,
E. G. White.
