Hosanna, Blessed is he that in the name of the Lord, commeth Kyng of Israel. <sup>14</sup> And Iesus gate a yonge asse, and sate thereon, as it is wrysten, <sup>15</sup> Feare not daughter of Sion, beholde thy Kyng commeth, sytting on an asses colte.

<sup>16</sup> These thynges vnderstode not his disciples at the fyrst: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembered they, that suche thynges were wrysten of hym, and that suche thynges they had done vnto hym.

<sup>17</sup> The people therefore that was with him bare witness that he called Lazarus out of the graue, and raysed hym from death. <sup>18</sup> Therefore met hym the people also, because they heard that he had done such a miracle. <sup>19</sup> The Pharisees therefore, sayd among them selues, Perceauē ye how ye preuaile nothyng? Beholde, the world goeth after hym. <sup>20</sup> There were certayne Grekes among them, that ordinarily came to worship at the feast. <sup>21</sup> The same came therefore to Philip which was of Bethsaida a cite in Galile, and desired him saying, Syr, we would fayne se Iesus. <sup>22</sup> Philip came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philip tolde Iesus. <sup>23</sup> And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come that the Sonne of man must be glorified.

<sup>24</sup> Verely verely I say vnto you, Except the wheate corne fall into the grounde and dye, it bydeth alone: but if it dye, it bringeth forth muche frute. <sup>25</sup> He that loueth his life, shal loose it: and he that hateth his life in this world, shal kepe it vnto lyfe eternal. <sup>26</sup> If any man minister vnto me, let hym folow me: for where I am, there shal also my minister be. And if any man minister vnto me, hym wyl my Father honour. <sup>27</sup> Now is my soule troubled: and what shal I say? Father deliuer me from this houre, but therefore came I vnto this houre.

Father gaue me commandement, euen so do I. Ryse, let vs go hence.

15. I AM the true vine, and my Father is an husband man. <sup>2</sup> Euery branche that beareth not frute in me, he taketh away : and euery branche that beareth frute, he poureth, that it may bring forth more frute. <sup>3</sup> Now are ye cleane through the wordes which I haue spoken vnto you. <sup>4</sup> Bide in me, and I in you. as the branche can not beare frute of it selfe, except it abyde in the vine : no more can ye, except ye abyde in me. <sup>5</sup> I am the vine, ye are the branches. he that abydeh in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth muche frute. For without me, can ye do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If a man hyde not in me, he is cast forth as a branche, and withereth : and men gather them and cast them into the fyre, and they burne.

vp loosyng the sorrowes of hel, according as it vvas impossible that he should be holden of it. <sup>25</sup> For Dauid saith concerning hym, I foresaw the Lord in my sight alwayes: because he is at my ryght hand that I be not moued. <sup>26</sup> For this, my hart hath been glad and my tongue hath reioyced: moreover my flesh also shal rest in hope. <sup>27</sup> Because thou wilt not leaue my soul in hel, nor giue thy Holy one to see corruption. <sup>28</sup> Thou hast made knowen to me the wayes of life: thou shalt make me full of ioyfulness with thy face.

to here the word of the gospel and to bileue. 8 and god that knew hertis bare witnessyng, and gaf to hem the holi goost as also to vs. 9 and no thing dy-uersid hitwixe us and hem; and clensid the hertis of hem bi feith. 10 now thanne what tempten ye god, to putte a yok on the necke of the disciplis, whiche nethir we nethir oure fadiris myzten here. 11 but bi the grace of our lord ihesus crist, we hilenen to be saued: as also thei. 12 and al the multitude helde pees and herden barnaban and poul tellynge hou greet the worde of the gossell and beleue. 8 And God which knoweth the herte bare them wites, and gave vnto them the holy goost; even as he dyd vnto vs, 9 and he put no difference bitwene them and vs;

 but with fayth purified their hertes. 10 Now therefore why tempte ye God, that ye wolde put a yoke on the disciples neckes; which nether oure fathers nor we were able to beare. 11 But we beleue that thorowe the grace of the Lorde Iesu Christ we shalbe saued, as they doo.
 12 Then all the multitude was peaced and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, which tolde what signes and wondres God had shewed amonge the gentyls; by them.

bear the worde of the Gossell, and beleue. 8 And God which knoweth the hertes, bare them wytnes, and gave vnto them the holy goost, euen as he dyd vnto vs, 9 and put no difference betwene vs and them syenge that wyth fayth he purified their hertes. 10 Now therefore, why tempte ye God, to put on the disciples neckes the yoke which nether oure fathers nor we were able to beare? 11 But we beleue, that thorow the grace of the Lorde Iesu Christ, we shalbe saued, as they do. 12 Then all the multytude was peaced and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, which tolde what sygnes and wondres God had shewed amonge the Gentyls by them.

and aftir that they helden pees: iames answerid and seide, britheren her ye me. 14 symount teelde hou god visitid first to take of hethen men a puple to his name: 15 and the wordis of profetis ac-corden to hym, as it is writun. 16 after this I schal turne agen, and bielde the tabernacle of dauid that felde down; and I schal bilde agayn the cast don thingis of it; and I schal reise it. 17 that other men seke the lord, and alle folkis on whiche my name is clepid to help the lord doyng this thing seith. 18 fro the world the werk of the lord is known to the lord; 19 for whiche thing I deme hem that of hethen men ben conuertide to god to be not dissesid. 20 but to write to hem, that they absteyne hem fro defoulyng of mawmetis, fro fornyecioun, and stranglid thingis and blood; 21 for moises of oold tymes, hath in alle citees, hem that prechen him in synagogis: wherobi ech saboth he is reede.

13 And when they helde their peace, James answered sayinge: Men and brethren herken vnto me. 14 Simeon tolde how God at the begynnynge dyd visit the gentyls, and receaved of them people vnto his name. 15 And to this agreith the wordes of the Prophetes, as it is written.
 16 After this I will returne, and wyll hyld agayne the tabernacle of David which is fallen doune; and that which is fallen in dekey of it, will I bilde agayne; and I will set it vp. 17 that the residue of men might seke after the Lorde; and also the gentyls vpon whom my name is named saith the Lorde, which doth all these thinges: 18 knowne vnto God are all his workes from the begynninge of the worlde.
 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them which from amonge the gentyls, are turned to God: 20 but that we write vnto them that they abstayne them selues from filthynges of ymages; from fornicacion, from stranglyd and from bloude. 21 For Moses of olde tyme hath in every cite that preache him; and he is rede in the synagoges every saboth daye.

13 And when they helde their peace, James answered, saying: Men and brethren, herken vnto me. 14 Simeon tolde, how God at the beginning dyd visit the gentyls, to receave of them a people in his name.
 15 And to this agree the wordes of the prophetes, as it is written: 16 After this I wyll returne, and will buylde agayne the tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe;
 and that which is fallen in decaye of it, wyll I buylde agayne, and I will set it vp, 17 that the resydue of men myght seke after the Lord, and also the Gentyls vpon whom my name is named sayth the Lorde, which doth all these thinges: 18 known vnto God are all his workes from the beginning of the world. 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them: which from amonge the Gentyls, are turned to God: 20 but that we wryte vnto them, that they absteyne them selues from filthynges of ymages, and from fornicacion, and from stranglyd, and from bloude. 21 For Moses of olde tyme hath in euery cite them that preache him, in the synagoges, when he is reddy euery Saboth daye.

these thyngs moue me, neither count I my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I might finish my course with ioy, and the ministry which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God. <sup>25</sup> And now beholde, I know that ye all, among whom I haue gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. <sup>26</sup> Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. <sup>27</sup> For I haue not shunned to declare vnto you all the counsell of God.

<sup>28</sup> Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, ouer the which the holy Ghost hath made you ouerseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his owne blood. <sup>29</sup> For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolues enter in among you, not sparing the flocke. <sup>30</sup> Also of your owne selues shall men arise, speaking peruerse thyngs, to draw away disciples after them. <sup>31</sup> Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of three yerres, I ceased not to warne euery one nyght and day with teares.

<sup>32</sup> And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you vp, and to giue you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. <sup>33</sup> I haue coueted no mans siluer, or gold, or apparell. <sup>34</sup> Yea, you your selues know, that these handes haue ministred vnto my necessities, and to them that were with mee. <sup>35</sup> I haue shewed you all thyngs, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weake, and to remember the words of the Lord Iesus, how he said, It is more blessed to giue, then to receiue.

<sup>36</sup> And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup> And they all wept sore, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, <sup>38</sup> Sorrowing most Ievves binde in Hierusalem, and shal deliuer him into the handes of the Gentiles.

<sup>12</sup> Vvwhich vvhēn vve had heard, vve and they that vvēre of the same place, desired him that he would not goe vp to Hierusalem. <sup>13</sup> Then Paul answered, and said, Vvhat doe you, vvēeping and afflicting my hart? for I am ready not only to be bound, but to die also in Hierusalem for the name of our Lord Iesus. <sup>14</sup> And vvhēn vve could not persuade him, we ceased, saying, The vvil of our Lord be done.

<sup>15</sup> And after those daies, being prepared, vve went vp to Hierusalem. <sup>16</sup> And there came also of the disciples from Casarēa vvith vs, bringing vvith them one Iason a Cyprian (vvith vvhom vve should lodge) an old disciple. <sup>17</sup> And vvhen vve were come to Hierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly. <sup>18</sup> And the day folovving Paul went in vvith vs to Iames, and all the Ancients vvēre assembled. <sup>19</sup> Vvhom vvhēn he had saluted, he told particularly vvhat God had done among the Gentiles by his ministerie. <sup>20</sup> But they hearing it, magnified God, and said to him: Thou seest (brother) hovv many thousands there are among the Ievves that haue beleueed: and al are zealātours of the Lavv. <sup>21</sup> But they haue heard of thee that thou doest teach those Ievves that are among the Gentiles, to depart from Moyses: saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, nor vvalke according to the custome. <sup>22</sup> Vvhat is it then? needs must the multitude assemble: for they vvil heare that thou art come. <sup>23</sup> Doe this therefore vvich vvēl thee, There are vvith vs four men, that haue a vvowe on them. <sup>24</sup> Taking these vvnto thee, sanctifie thy self vvith them: and bestovv on them, that they may shauē their heades: and al shal know, that the things vvich they heard of thee, are false: but that thy selfe also vvalkest keeping the Lavv. <sup>25</sup> But

<sup>12</sup> And when we heard these things, both wee and they of that place, besoght him not to goe vp to Hierusalem. <sup>13</sup> Then Paul answered, What meanē ye to weepe and to breake mine heart? for I am ready, not to be bound onely, but also to die at Hierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus. <sup>14</sup> And when hee would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. <sup>15</sup> And after those daies we tooke vp our carriages, and went vp to Hierusalem. <sup>16</sup> Then went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. <sup>17</sup> And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

<sup>18</sup> And the day following Paul went in with vs vnto Iames, and all the Elders were present. <sup>19</sup> And when hee had saluted them, hee declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministerie. <sup>20</sup> And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Iewes there are which beleuee, and they are all zealous of the Law. <sup>21</sup> And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walke after the customes. <sup>22</sup> What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will heare that thou art come. <sup>23</sup> Doe therefore this that we say to thee: Wee haue four men which haue a vow on them, <sup>24</sup> Them take, and purifie thy selfe with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shauē their heads: and al may know that those things wherof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest orderly, and keepest the Law. <sup>25</sup> As touching the Gentiles which appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnes, both of those things which thou hast sene, and of those things in the which I will appear vnto thee, <sup>17</sup> Deliuering thee from this people, and from the Gentils, vnto whome now I send thee, <sup>18</sup> To open their eyes, that they may tourne from darknesse to lyght, and frome the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receaue forgoeuens of synnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

<sup>19</sup> Wherefore King Agrippa I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision. <sup>20</sup> But shewed first vnto them at Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iurie, and then to the Gentils, that they should repent, and turne to God, and do the ryght workes of repentance. <sup>21</sup> For this cause the Iewes caught me in the temple, and went about to kyl me. <sup>22</sup> Neuertheles, I obteyned helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessyng both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses dyd say should come.

to thee, that I may ordaine thee a minister and vtines of those things vvhich thou hast sene, and of those things vvherein I vvill appeare to thee, <sup>17</sup> deliuering thee out of the peoples and nations vnto the vvhich now I send thee, <sup>18</sup> to open their eies, that they may be conuerted from darkenes to light, and from the pover of Satan to God, that they may receiue remission of sinnes and lot among the sainets by the faith that is in me.

<sup>19</sup> Vvherevpon, king Agrippa, I vvias not incredulous to the heavenly vision: <sup>20</sup> but to them first that are at Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and vnto all the countrie of Ievvie, and to the Gentiles did I preach that they should doe penance, and turne to God, doing vvorkes vvorthie of penance. <sup>21</sup> For this cause the Ievves, vvhen I vvias in the temple, apprehending me, attempted meaning to kil me. <sup>22</sup> But aided by the help of God, I stand vntil this day, testifying to small and to great, saying nothing beside those things vvhich the Prophets did speake should come to passe, and Moyses, <sup>23</sup> if CHRIST vvere possible, if the first of the resurrection from the dead, he vvere to shew light to the people and to the Gentiles.

<sup>24</sup> As he spake these things and made his ansver, Festus vvith a loud voyce said, Thou art mad, Paul: much learning turneth thee to madness. <sup>25</sup> And Paul said, I am not mad, most excellent Festus: but I speake vvordes of veritie and sobrietic. <sup>26</sup> For the king knowveth of these things, to vvhom also I speake constantly, for I thinke none of these things to be vvknovven to him. other, teachest not thy self: that preachest, men ought not to steale, thou stealest: <sup>22</sup> that saiest men should not commit adoutrie, thou committest adoutrie: that abhorrest idols, thou doest sacrilege:

<sup>23</sup> that doest glorie in the Lawv, thou by preuarication of the Lawv doest dishonour God. (<sup>24</sup> For the name of God through you is blasphemed among the Gentiles, as it is vvritten.) <sup>25</sup> Circumcision in deede profiteth, if thou obserue the Lawv: but if thou be a preuaricatur of the Lawv, thy circumcision is become prepuce. <sup>26</sup> If then the prepuce kepe the iustices of the Lawv: shal not his prepuce be reputed for circumcision? <sup>27</sup> and shal not that vvich of nature is prepuce, fulfilling the Lawv, iudge thee, that by the letter and circumcision art a preuaricatur of the Lawv? <sup>28</sup> For not he that is in open shevv, is a Ievv, nor that vvich is in open shevv, in the flesh, is circumcision:

Is he not also the God of the Gentyls? Yes, euen of the Gentyls also. <sup>30</sup> For it is God only which iustifieth the circumcisioun that is of faith, and vncircumcisioun thorow faith. <sup>31</sup> Do we then destroye the lawe thorow faith? time his ryghtuousnesse, that he myght be counted iuste, and a iustifier of him which beleueth on Iesus. <sup>27</sup> Where is then the reioysing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the Lawe of fayth. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, we gather that a man is iustified by fayth, wythout the deedes of the Lawe. <sup>29</sup> God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes euen of the Gentiles also. <sup>30</sup> For it is one God which shal iustifie Circumcision which is of fayth, and vncircumcision through fayth. <sup>31</sup> Do we then make the Lawe vnpoffethed through fayth? God forbid, yea rather we establish the Lawe.

For we say, how that fayth was reckened vnto Abraham for ryghtuousnes. <sup>10</sup> How was it then reckened? in the tyme of Circumcision? or in the tyme before he was circumcised? not in the tyme of Circumcision: but when he was yet vncircumcised.

to the sheving of his iustice in this time: that he may be iust, and iustifying him that is of the fayth of IESVS CHRIST.

<sup>27</sup> Where is then thy boasting? it is excluded, by vwhat law? of deedes? No, but by the law of fayth. <sup>28</sup> For vve account a man to be iustified by fayth vwithout the vvorkes of the Lavv. <sup>29</sup> Is he God of the Iewes onely? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes of the Gentiles also. <sup>30</sup> For it is one God, that iustifieth circumcision by fayth, and prepuce by fayth. <sup>31</sup> Do vve then destroy the Lavv by fayth? God forbid, but vve do establish the Lavv.

4. VVHAT shal vve say then that Abraham did finde, our father according to the flesh? <sup>2</sup> For if Abraham vvve iustified by vvorkes: he hath glorie, but not vvith God. <sup>3</sup> For vvhat saith the Scripture? Abraham beleueed God, and it vvvas reputed him to iustice. <sup>4</sup> But to him that vvorketh, the reppard is not imputed according to grace, but according to dette. <sup>5</sup> But to him that vvorketh not, yet beleueeth in him that iustifieth the impious, his faith is reputed to iustice according to the purpose of the grace of God. <sup>6</sup> As Dauid also termeth the blessednes of a man, to vvhom God reputeth iustice vwithout vvorkes, <sup>7</sup> Blessed are they, vvwhose iniquities be forgiuen, and vvwhose sinnes be covered. <sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man to vvhom our Lord hath not imputed sinne.

<sup>9</sup> This blessednes then doth it abide in the circumcision, or in the prepuce also? For vve say that vnto Abraham faith vvvas reputed to iustice. <sup>10</sup> How vvvas it reputed? in circumcision, or in prepuce? Not in circumcision, but in prepuce.

righteousness: that hee might bee iust, and the iustifier of him which beleueth in Iesus.

<sup>27</sup> Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? Of workes? Nay: but by the Law of faith. <sup>28</sup> Therefore wee conclude, that a man is iustified by faith, without the deeds of the Law. <sup>29</sup> Is he the God of the Iewes onely? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also; <sup>30</sup> Seeing it is one God which shall iustifie the circumcision by faith, and vncircumcision through faith. <sup>31</sup> Doe we then make void the Law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

4. WHAT shal we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? <sup>2</sup> For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath whereof to glory, but not before God. <sup>3</sup> For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleueed God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousnes.

<sup>4</sup> Now to him that worketh, is the rewarde not reckoned of grace, but of debt. <sup>5</sup> But to him that worketh not, but beleueth on him that iustifieth the vngodly: his faith is counted for righteousnesse. <sup>6</sup> Euen as Dauid also describeth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without workes: <sup>7</sup> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered. <sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne. <sup>9</sup> Commeth this blessednes then vpon the Circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For wee say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnesse. <sup>10</sup> How was it then reckoned? when he was in Circumcision, or in vncircumcision? not in Circumcision, but in vncircumcision. <sup>11</sup> And hee receiued the signe of Circumcision, a scale of the righteousnesse of the faith, which hee had yet being vncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them sinned after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come : <sup>15</sup> But not as the offence, so also is the free gift : for if through the offence of one, many be dead : much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many. <sup>16</sup> And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift : for the iudgement was by one to condemnation : but the free gift is of many offences vnto iustification. <sup>17</sup> For if <sup>a</sup> by one mans offence, death raygned by one, much more they which receiue abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousnes, shall raygne in life by one, Iesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> Therefore as <sup>a</sup> by the offence of one, iudgment came vpon all men to condemnation : euen so by the <sup>b</sup> righteousnes of one, the free gift came vpon all men vnto iustification of life. <sup>19</sup> For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners : so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup> Moreover, the Lawe entred, that the offence might abound : but where sinne abounded, grace did much more abound. <sup>21</sup> That as sinne hath raygned vnto death ; euen so might grace raygne thorow rightuousnes vnto eternal life, by Iesus Christ our Lord.

WHAT shal we say then ? shal we continue in sinne : that grace may abound ? <sup>2</sup> God forbid : how shal wee that are dead to sinne, lue any longer therein ? <sup>3</sup> Know ye not, that so many of vs as were baptized into Iesus Christ, were baptized into his death ? <sup>4</sup> Therefore wee are buried with him by baptisme into death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the Father : euen so we also should walke in newnesse of life. <sup>5</sup> For if we haue beene planted together in the likeness of his death : we shall be

For the ende of those things is death. <sup>22</sup> But now being freed from synne, and made the seruautes of God, ye haue your frute in holines: and the ende, euerlasting life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of synne is death: but the gyfte of God, is eternal life through Iesus Christe our Lord.

7. KNOWE ye not brethren (for I speake to them that are skilful in the Law) how that the Lawe hath power ouer a man as long as he lyueth. <sup>2</sup> For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the Lawe to the man, as long as he lyueth: if the man be dead, she is lowed from the Lawe of the man. <sup>3</sup> So then, if while the man lyueth she couple her selfe with another man, she shalbe called an adulterer: but yf the man be dead, she is fre from that Lawe: so that she is not an adulterer, though she couple her selfe with another man. <sup>4</sup> Euen so ye my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe, in the body of Christe, that ye shulde be coupled to another, I meane to him that is rysen agayne from death, that ye shulde bringe forth frute vnto God. <sup>5</sup> For when we were in the fleshe, the motions of synnes which were stered vp by the Lawe, bare rule in our members, to bring forth frute vnto death. <sup>6</sup> But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto yt, wherein we were in bondage, that we should serue in a newe conuersation of the Sprite, and not in the olde conuersation of the letter.

<sup>7</sup> What shal we say then? is the Law synne? God forbid. Nay, rather I knewe not what sinne meant, but by the Lawe. For I had not known what lust had meant, except the Lawe had said, Thou shalt not lust. <sup>8</sup> But synne toke an occasion by the meanes of the commandement, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For verely without the Lawe, sinne is dead. <sup>9</sup> For I once was a lyue, without the Lawe:

7. ARE you ignorant brethren (for I speake to them that know the Law) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long time as he liueth? <sup>2</sup> for the vvhoman that is vnder a husband: her husband liuing is bound to the law. but if her husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. <sup>3</sup> Therefore her husband liuing, she shal be called an aduoueress if she be vvhith an other man: but if her husband be dead, she is deliuered from the law of her husband: so that she is not an aduoueress if she be vvhith an other man. <sup>4</sup> Therefore my brethren you also are made dead to the Law by the body of Christ: that you may be an other mans vvhio is risen againe from the dead, that vve may fructifie to God.

8. Ther is then no damnacion to them which are in Christ Iesu, which walke not after the fleshe, but after the sprete.<sup>2</sup> For the lawe of the sprete of lyfe thorow Iesus Christ, hath made me fre from the lawe of synne, and deeth.<sup>3</sup> For what the lawe coude not doo (in as moch as it was weake because of the fleshe) that performed God, and sent his sonne in the simyltude of synfull fleshe, and by synne dampned synne in the fleshe:<sup>4</sup> that the rightewesnes of the lawe, myght be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the fleshe, but after the sprete.

<sup>5</sup> For they that are carnall, are carnally mynded. But they that are spirituall, are gostly mynded.<sup>6</sup> To be carnally mynded, is deeth. But to be spirituall mynded is life and peace.<sup>7</sup> Because that the fleshy mynde is enemye agaynst God: for it is not obedyent to the lawe of God, nether can be.<sup>8</sup> So then they that are in the fleshe, cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup> But ye are not in the fleshe, but in the sprete: yf so be that the sprete of God dwell in you. If eny man haue not the sprete of Christ, the same is none of his.<sup>10</sup> If Chryst be in you, the body is deed because of synne: but the sprete is lyfe for rightewesnes sake.<sup>11</sup> Wherefore, yf the sprete of him that rayzed vp Iesus from deeth, dwell in you: euen he that rayzed vp Chryst from deeth, shall quyken youre mortall bodies, because of hys sprete that dwelleth in you.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore brethren, we are detters, not to the fleshe, to lyue after the fleshe.<sup>13</sup> For yf ye lyue after the fleshe, ye shall dye. But yf ye (thorow the sprete) do mortyfy the dedes of the body, ye shall lyue.<sup>14</sup> For as many as are led by the sprete of God, they are the sones of God.<sup>15</sup> For ye haue not receaved the sprete of bondage to feare eny moere, but ye haue receaved the sprete of adopcioen, wherby we crye: Abba father.<sup>16</sup> The same sprete certyfyethoure sprete that

8. THER is then now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh: but after the Sprite. <sup>2</sup> For the Lawe of the Sprite of lyfe which is in Christe Iesus, hath deliuered me from the lawe of synne, and death. <sup>3</sup> For what the Lawe could not do, in as muche as it was weake, because of the flesh: God sending his owne Sonne in the similitude of synful fleshe, and that for synne, condemned synne in the fleshe: <sup>4</sup> That the righteousnes of the Lawe, myght be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Sprite. <sup>5</sup> For they that are carnal, are carnally wise: but they that are spiritual are affectionned to spiritual things. <sup>6</sup> For the wisdomde of the fleshe, is death: but the wisdomde of the Spirit, is lyfe and peace: <sup>7</sup> Because that the fleshly wisdomde is enmitic agaynst God: for it is not obedient to the Lawe of God: nether in deed, can be.

<sup>8</sup> So then, they that are in the fleshe, can not please God. <sup>9</sup> But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Sprite: because the Sprite of God dwelleth in you. If any man hath not the Sprite of Christ, the same is none of his. <sup>10</sup> If Christ be in you, the body is dead because of synne: but the Sprite is lyfe for righteousnes sake. <sup>11</sup> But yf the Sprite of him that raised vp Iesus from death, dwell in you: euen he that raised vp Christ from death, shal quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Sprite dwelleth in you.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore brethren, we are detters not to the fleshe, to lye after the fleshe, but to the Sprite. <sup>13</sup> For yf ye lye after the flesh, ye shal dye: but yf ye mortifie the dedes of the body, by the Sprite, ye shal lye. <sup>14</sup> For as many as are led by the Sprite of God: they are the sonnes of God. <sup>15</sup> For ye haue not receaued the Sprite of bondage to feare any more: but ye haue receaued the Sprite of adoption, wherby we crye Abba, that is say, Father. <sup>16</sup> The which selfe same Sprite beareth witness

RHEIMS—1582.

8. THERE is now therefore no damnation to them that are in Christ IESVS: that walke not according to the flesh. <sup>2</sup> For the lavy of the spirit of life in Christ IESVS, hath deliuered me from the lavy of sinne and of death. <sup>3</sup> For that which was impossible to the Lavy, in that it was weakened by the flesh: God sending his sonne in the similitude of the flesh of sinne, euen of sinne damned sinne in the flesh, <sup>4</sup> that the iustification of the lavy might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not according to the flesh, but according to the spirit. <sup>5</sup> For they that are according to the flesh, are affected to the things that are of the flesh, but they that are according to the spirit: are affected to the things that are of the spirit.

<sup>6</sup> For the wisdomde of the flesh, is death: but the wisdomde of the spirit, life and peace. <sup>7</sup> Because the wisdomde of the flesh, is anemie to God: for to the law of God it is not subiect, neither can it be. <sup>8</sup> And they that are in the flesh, can not please God. <sup>9</sup> But you are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, yet if the Spirit of God dwell in you. But if any man haue not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his. <sup>10</sup> But if Christ be in you: the body in deede is dead because of sinne, but the spirit liueth because of iustification. <sup>11</sup> And if the Spirit of him that raised vp IESVS from the dead, dwell in you: he that raised vp IESVS CHRIST from the dead, shal quicken also your mortal bodies, because of his Spirit dwelling in you.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore brethren, we are detters: not to the flesh, to lye according to the flesh. <sup>13</sup> For if you lye according to the flesh, you shal dye, but if by the spirit, you mortifie the dedes of the flesh you shal lye. <sup>14</sup> For whosoever are ledde by the spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God. <sup>15</sup> For you haue not receiued the spirit of seruitude againe in feare: but you haue receiued the spirit of adoption of sonnes, wherewith we crye: Abba, (father). <sup>16</sup> For the Spirit him self,

8. THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Iesus, who walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit. <sup>2</sup> For the law of the spirit of life, in Christ Iesus, hath made me free from the law of sinne and death. <sup>3</sup> For what the Law could not doe, in that it was weake through the flesh, God sending his owne Sonne, in the likeness of sinfull flesh, and for sinne condemned sinne in the flesh: <sup>4</sup> That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in vs, who walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit. <sup>5</sup> For they that are after the flesh, doe minde the things of the flesh: but they that are after the spirit, the things of the spirit. <sup>6</sup> For he that is carnally minded, is death: but he that is spiritually minded, is life and peace: <sup>7</sup> Because the carnal minde is enmitic against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

<sup>8</sup> So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God. <sup>9</sup> But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man haue not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his. <sup>10</sup> And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sinne: but the spirit is life, because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> But if the spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you: he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, by his spirit that dwelleth in you. <sup>12</sup> Therefore brethren we are detters, not to the flesh, to lye after the flesh. <sup>13</sup> For if ye lye after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the spirit doe mortifie the dedes of the body, ye shall lye. <sup>14</sup> For as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

together with our Sprite, that we are the sonnes of God. <sup>17</sup> If we be sonnes: we are also heires, the heyes I meane of God, and heyes annexed with Christ: yf so be that we suffer together with him, that we may also be glorified together with him. <sup>18</sup> For I confirme, that the afflictions of this lyfe are not worthy of the glorie which shall be shewed vnto vs. <sup>19</sup> For the feruent desire of the creature abyedeth, lokyng when the sonnes of God shal appere, <sup>20</sup> Because the creature is subiect to vanitie, not of it owne wil: but by reason of him which hath subdued it in hope.

<sup>21</sup> Because the same creature also, shal be deluyered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God. <sup>22</sup> For we knowe that euery creature groweth with vs also, and trauaileth in payne euen vnto this tyme. <sup>23</sup> Not only the creature, but euen we also which haue the fyrst frutes of the Sprite, do sighe in our selues, and waite for the adoption, euen the deliuerance of our body. <sup>24</sup> For we are saued by hope: but hope that is sene, is no hope, for how can a man hope for that which he seeth? <sup>25</sup> But and yf we hope for that we se not, then do we with pacience abyde for it.

giueth testimonie to our spirit, that we are the sonnes of God. <sup>17</sup> And if sonnes, heires also: heires truly of God, and co-heires of Christ: yet if vve suffer vwith him, that vve may be also glorified vwith him.

<sup>18</sup> For I thinke that the passions of this time are not condigne to the glorie to come that shall be reuealed in vs. <sup>19</sup> For the expectation of the creature, expecteth the reuelation of the sonnes of God. <sup>20</sup> For the creature is made subiect to vanitie, not vwillng, but for him that made it subiect in hope: <sup>21</sup> because the creature also it self shal be deliuered from the seruitude of corruption, into the libertie of the glorie of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> For vve knovy that euery creature groweth, and trauaileth euen til novv, <sup>23</sup> And not only it, but vve also our selues hauing the first frutes of the spirit, vve also grove vwith in our selues, expecting the adoption of the sonnes of God, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup> For by hope vve are saued. But hope that is seen, is not hope, for that vvhich a man seeeth, vvhether doth he hope it? <sup>25</sup> But if vve hope for that vvhich vve see not: vve expect by patience.

beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. <sup>17</sup> And if children, then heires, heires of God, and ioynt heires with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that wee may be also glorified together. <sup>18</sup> For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be reuealed in vs. <sup>19</sup> For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God. <sup>20</sup> For the creature was made subiect to vanitie, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subiected the same in hope: <sup>21</sup> Because the creature it selfe also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> For wee knowe that the whole creation groaneth, and travaileth in paine together vntill now. <sup>23</sup> And not onely they, but our selues also which haue the first frutes of the spirit, euen we our selues groane within our selues, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup> For we are saued by hope: but hope that is scene, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doeth he yet hope for? <sup>25</sup> But if wee hope for that we see not, then doe wee with patience waite for it.

<sup>26</sup> Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh intercession for vs with groanings, which cannot be vttered. <sup>27</sup> And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the mind of the spirit, because he maketh intercession for the Saints according to the will of God. <sup>28</sup> And wee knowe that all thinges worke together for good, to them that loue God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. <sup>29</sup> For whom he did foreknow, hee also did predestinate to be conformable to the image of his Sonne, that he might bee the first borne amongst many brethren. <sup>30</sup> Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also iustified:

backe alwayes. <sup>11</sup> I say then, Haue they therfore stombled, that they should fall? <sup>12</sup> God forbyd ; but through their fall, saluation cometh vnto the Gentils, to prouoke them, be the reconciling of the worlde :

 what shal the receauing of them be, but lyfe from the dead? <sup>17</sup> For if the first fruite be holy, the whole lompe is holie :
 and if the rote be holy, the branches lykewyse shalbe holy.

<sup>17</sup> Though some of the branches be broken and bow downe their backe alway. <sup>11</sup> I say then; Haue they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid. But rather through their fall, saluation is come vnto the Gentiles, for to prouoke them to ielousie.

<sup>12</sup> Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them, the riches of the Gentiles : how much more their fulnesse ?

<sup>13</sup> For I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles,
 I magnifie mine office : <sup>14</sup> If by any meanes I may prouoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might saue some of them. <sup>15</sup> For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world : what shall the receiuing of them be, but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup> For if the first fruit be holy, the lumpe is also holy : and if the rote be holy, so are the branches.
<sup>17</sup> And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wild olue-tree wert graffed in amongst them, and with them partakest of the rote and fatnesse of the Oliue tree : <sup>18</sup> Boast not against the branches : but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

<sup>19</sup> Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.
<sup>20</sup> Well : because of vnbelefe they were broken off, and thou standest by faith.
 Be not high minded, but feare. <sup>21</sup> For if God spared not the natural branches,
take heed lest hee also spare not thee.
<sup>22</sup> Beholde therefore the goodnesse and seueritie of God : on them which fell, se-ueritie; and toward thee, goodnesse, if thou continue in his goodnesse : otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. <sup>23</sup> And they also, if they bide not still in vnbelefe, shall be graffed in : for God is able to graffe them in agayne. <sup>24</sup> For if thou wert cut out of the Oliue tree which is wilde by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good Oliue tree :
 how much more shall these which be the natural branches, be graffed into their owne Oliue tree ?

the Lord, every knee shall bow to mee, and every tongue shall confesse to God. <sup>12</sup> So then every one of vs shall giue account of himselfe to God. <sup>13</sup> Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but iudge this rather, that no man put a stumbling blocke, or an occasion to fall in his brothers way. <sup>14</sup> I knowe, and am perswaded by the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vnclene of it selfe: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be vnclene, to him it is vnclene. <sup>15</sup> But if thy brother be grieued with thy meate: now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup> Let not then your good be euill spoken of. <sup>17</sup> For the kingdom of God is not meat and drinke; but righteousness, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost. <sup>18</sup> For hee that in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

<sup>19</sup> Let vs therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edifie another. <sup>20</sup> For meate, destroy not the worke of God: all things indeed are pure; but it is euill for that man who eateth with offence. <sup>21</sup> It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing wherewith thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weake. <sup>22</sup> Hast thou faith? haue it to thyselfe before God. Happie is he that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth. <sup>23</sup> And he that doubteth, is damned if hee eate, because hee eateth not of faith: For whatsoever is not of faith, is sinne.

thing, which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentils obedient with word and dede. <sup>19</sup> In myghty signes and wonders, by the power of the Sprite of God: so that from Ierusalem and the costes rounde about vnto Illyricum, I haue fulfilled myne office of preaching the Gospel of Christe.

<sup>20</sup> Yea so I enforced my selfe to preache the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I sholde haue buylt on another mans foundation: <sup>21</sup> But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shal see: and they that heard not, shal vnderstand. <sup>22</sup> For thus cause I haue bene oft let to come vnto you. <sup>23</sup> But now syng I haue no more to do in these countres, and also haue bene desirous many yeres agone to come vnto you: <sup>24</sup> When I shal take my iorney into Spayne, I wyl come to you: for I trust to se you in my iorney, and to be brought on my way thitherwarde by you, after that I haue bene somewhat filled with your companie. <sup>25</sup> Now go I vnto Ierusalem, to minister vnto the Sainetes.

<sup>26</sup> For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certayne distribution vnto the poore Sainetes which are at Ierusalem. <sup>27</sup> It hath pleased them I say, and their detters are they. For if the Gentils be made partakers of their spiritual things, their dutie is to minister vnto them in carnal things. <sup>28</sup> When I haue performed this, and haue brought them this frute sealed: I wil passe by you into Spayne. <sup>29</sup> And I am sure when I come, that I shal come to you with abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ. <sup>30</sup> Also brethren I beseeche you for our Lord Iesus Christes sake, and for the loue of the Sprite, that ye wolde strue with me in your prayers to God for me.

minde, and in one judgement. <sup>11</sup> For it hath bene declared vnto me my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of Cloe, that ther is strife among you. <sup>12</sup> And this is it that I mene, that euerie one of you sayeth, I holde of Paul, I holde of Apollos, I holde of Cephas, I holde of Christe.

<sup>13</sup> Is Christe deuided? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptized in the Name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank God, that I baptized none of you, but Crispus, and Gaius. <sup>15</sup> Lest any should say, that I had baptized in myne owne name. <sup>16</sup> I baptized also the householde of Stephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized any other. <sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not wyth wysdome of talke, lest the crosse of Christ shold haue bene made of none effect. <sup>18</sup> For the preaching of the crosse, is to them that perishe, foolishnes: but vnto vs which are saued, it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup> For it is written, I wil destroy the wysdome of the wyse, and wyl cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent. <sup>20</sup> Where is the wyse? where is the Scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made the wysdome of this world foolishnes?

<sup>21</sup> For when the world by wysdome, knew not God, in the wysdome of God: it pleased God by foolish preaching, to saue them that beleue. <sup>22</sup> Seing also that the Iewes require a sygne, and the Grekes seke after wysdome. <sup>23</sup> But we preach Christe crucified: vnto the Iewes, an occasion of falling: and vnto the Grekes, folyshnes: <sup>24</sup> But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grekes, we preach Christe, the power of god, and the wysdome of God. <sup>25</sup> For the folyshnes of God, is wyser then men: and the weaknes of God, is stronger then men. <sup>26</sup> Brethren you se your calling, how that perfect in one sense, and in one knowledge. <sup>11</sup> For it is signified vnto me (my brethren) of you, by them that are of Chloë, that there be contentions among you. <sup>12</sup> And I mean this, for that euerie one of you saith, I certes am Pauls, and I Apollos, but I Cephas, and I Christs.

<sup>13</sup> Is Christ deuided? Vvhy, vvas Paul crucified for you? or in the name of Paul vvere you baptized? <sup>14</sup> I giue God thanks, that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Caius: <sup>15</sup> lest any man say that in my name you vvere baptized. <sup>16</sup> And I baptized also the house of Stéphanas. But I know not if I haue baptized any other.

<sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to euangelize: not in vvisedom of speache, that the crosse of Christ be not made void. <sup>18</sup> For the vvord of the crosse, to them in deede that perish, is folyshnes: but to them that are saued, that is, to vs, it is the pover of God. <sup>19</sup> For it is vvritten, I vvill destroy the vvisedom of the vvise: and the prudence of the prudent I vvill reiecte. <sup>20</sup> Vvhere is the vvise? vvhere is the Scribe? vvhere is the disputer of this vvorld? Hath not God made the vvisedom of this vvorld folysh? <sup>21</sup> For because in the vvisedom of God the vvord did not by vvisedom knovv God: it pleased God by the folyshnes of the preaching to saue them that beleue. <sup>22</sup> For both the Iewes aske signes, and the Greekes seeke vvisedom:

<sup>23</sup> but vve preach Christ crucified, to the Iewes certes a scandal, and to the Gentiles, folyshnes: <sup>24</sup> but to the called Iewes and Greekes, Christ the pover of God and the vvisedom of God. <sup>25</sup> For that vvich is the folysh of God, is vviser then men: and that vvich is the infirme of God, is stronger then men. <sup>26</sup> For see your vocation brethren, that not many together in the same minde, and in the same judgement. <sup>11</sup> For it hath bene declared vnto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup> Now this I say, that euerie one of you saith, I am of Paul, and I of Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ. <sup>13</sup> Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? or were yee baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius: <sup>15</sup> Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine owne name.

<sup>16</sup> And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. <sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: not with wisdome of <sup>a</sup> words, lest the Crosse of Christ should be made of none effect. <sup>18</sup> For the preaching of the Crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs which are saued, it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup> For it is written, I will destroy the wisdome of the wise, and wil bring to nothing the vnderstanding of the prudent. <sup>20</sup> Where is the wise? where is the Scribe? where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdome of this world?

<sup>21</sup> For after that, in the wisdome of God, the world by wisdome knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching, to saue them that beleuee. <sup>22</sup> For the Iewes require a signe, and the Greekes seeke after wisdome. <sup>23</sup> But wee preach Christ crucified, vnto the Iewes a stumbling block, and vnto the Greekes, foolishnesse: <sup>24</sup> But vnto them which are called, both Iewes and Greekes, Christ, the power of God, and the wisdome of God.

<sup>25</sup> Because the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men: and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men. <sup>26</sup> For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not judgement. no, I iudge not myne owne selfe. <sup>4</sup> For I knowe noight by my selfe: yet am I not thereby iustified: but the Lord is he that iudgeth me. <sup>5</sup> Therefore iudge nothing before the tyme, vntyl the Lord come, which wyl lighten things that are hyd in darcknes, and open the counsels of the hartes: and then shal euery man haue prayse of God. <sup>6</sup> These things brethren I haue figuratiuely described in myne owne person and Apollos, for your sakes: that ye myght learne by vs, that no man counte of hym selfe beyonde that which is aboue written: that one swel not against another for any mans cause. <sup>7</sup> For who preferreth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receaued? If thou hast receaued it, why reioyseth thou, as though thou haddest not receaued it? <sup>8</sup> Now ye are full, now ye are made riche, ye raygne as kynges without vs: and I walde to God ye dyd raygne, that we also might raygne with you.

<sup>9</sup> For I thinke that God hath appoynted vs the laste Apostles, as it were men destinate to death, for we are a gasyng stocke vnto the worlde, and to the Angels, and to men. <sup>10</sup> We are foles for Christes sake, and ye are wyse through Christ, we are weake, and ye are stronge: ye are honorable, and we are despised. <sup>11</sup> Euen vnto this daie we hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffetted, and haue no certayne dwelling place. <sup>12</sup> And labour, working with our owne handes, we are reuyled, and yet we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffer it. <sup>13</sup> We are euil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as it were the fylthe of the world, the ofscowring of all things, euen vnto this tyme.

<sup>14</sup> I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued sonnes I warne you. <sup>15</sup> For though ye haue ten thousand instructours in Christ: yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus, I haue of mans day: but I iudge not my self neither. <sup>4</sup> For I am not guilty in conscience of any thing: but I am not iustified herein: but he that iudgeth me, is our Lord. <sup>5</sup> Therefore iudge not before the time: vntil our Lord do come, vvhō also wil lighten the hidden things of darckenes, and vvil manifest the counsels of the hartes: and then the praise shal be to euery man of God.

<sup>6</sup> But these things, brethren, I haue transfigured into my self and Apollo, for you: that in vs you may learne, one not to be puffed vp against an other, aboue that is vwritten. <sup>7</sup> For vvhō discerneth thee? Or vvhast hast thou that thou hast not receued? And if thou hast receued, what doest thou glorie as though thou hast not receued? <sup>8</sup> Now you are filled, now are you become riche: without vs you reigne: and I would to God you did reigne, that vve also might reigne vwith you.

<sup>9</sup> For I thinke that God hath sheved vs Apostles the last, as it vvere deputed to death: because vve are made a spectacle to the vworld, and to Angels and men. <sup>10</sup> Vve are fooles for Christ: but you vwise in Christ, vve vweake: but you strong, you noble, but vve base. <sup>11</sup> Vntil this houre we doe both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are beaten vwith buffetts, and are vwanderers, <sup>12</sup> and labour vworking vwith our ovvne handes, vve are cursed: and do blesse, vve are persecuted: and susteine it. <sup>13</sup> vve are blasphemed: and vve beseeche, vve are made the refuse of this vworld, the drosse of al euen vntil novv.

<sup>14</sup> Not to confound you, do I vwrite these things: but as my decest children I admonish you. <sup>15</sup> For if you haue ten thousand pedagoges in Christ: yet not many fathers. For in Christ Iesus by the

of you, or of mans <sup>a</sup> judgement: yea, I iudge not mine owne selfe. <sup>4</sup> For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not hereby justified: but hee that iudgeth me is the Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darckenesse, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall euery man haue praise of God. <sup>6</sup> And these things, brethren, I haue in a figure transferred to my selfe, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that yee might learne in vs not to thinke of men, aboue that which is vwritten, that no one of you be puffed vp for one against another. <sup>7</sup> For who <sup>b</sup> maketh thee to differ from another? And what hast thou that thou didst not recieve? Now if thou didst recieve it, why doest thou glory as if thou hadst not recieued it? <sup>8</sup> Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye haue reigned as Kings without vs, and I would to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

<sup>9</sup> For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the Apostles last, as it were approued to death. For we are made a spectacle vnto the world, and to Angels, and to men. <sup>10</sup> We are fooles for Christes sake, but ye are wise in Christ. We are weake, but ye are strong: yee are honourable, but we are despised. <sup>11</sup> Euen vnto this present houre wee both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffetted, and haue no certayne dwelling place. <sup>12</sup> And labour, working with our owne hands: being reuiled, wee blesse: being persecuted, we suffer it: <sup>13</sup> Being defamed, we intreate: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things vnto this day. <sup>14</sup> I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued sonnes I warne you. <sup>15</sup> For though you haue ten thousand instructours in Christ, yet haue yee not many fathers: For in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the begotten you through the Gospel. <sup>16</sup> Wherefore, I pray you follow me. <sup>17</sup> For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, which is my deare sonne, and faithful in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christe, euen as I teache eury where in all Congregacions. <sup>18</sup> So me swel as thogh I wold not come to you. <sup>19</sup> But I wil come to you shortly, if God wyl, and wyl knowe, not the speache of them which swel, but the spiritual power. <sup>20</sup> For the kyngdome of God is not in wordes, but in the power of the Spirit. <sup>21</sup> What wyl ye? shal I come vnto you with a rod, or els in loue and in the sprit of mekenes?

5. IT is heard for a trueth that there is fornication among you, and suche fornication among you, and suche fornication as is not once named among the Gentils: that one should interteyne hys fathers wife. <sup>2</sup> And ye swel, and haue not rather sorowed, that he which hath done thys dede, myght be put from among you. <sup>3</sup> For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already as thogh I were present, that he that hath in thys sort done thys dede, <sup>4</sup> When ye are gathered together, and my spirite, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, <sup>5</sup> Be deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the fleshe, that the spirite may be saued in the day of the Lord Iesus.

For Christ our Easter lambe, is offered vp for vs. <sup>8</sup> Therefore let vs kepe holy day, not in olde leuen, nether in the leuen of malicousnes and wyckednes: but with the swete bread of puritie and trueth. <sup>9</sup> I wrote vnto you in an epistle, that ye should not company with fornicatours.

5. THERE is plainly heard fornication among you, and such fornication, as the like is not among the heathen, so that one hath his fathers vvife. <sup>2</sup> And you are puffed vp: and haue not mourned rather, that he might be taken away from among you, that hath done this deede.

<sup>3</sup> I in deede absent in body, but present in spirit, haue already iudged, as present, him that hath so done, <sup>4</sup> in the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, you being gathered together and my spirit, vvith the vertue of our Lord Iesus <sup>5</sup> to deliuer such an one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saued in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ. <sup>6</sup> Your glorying is not good. For euen Christ our Passeeover <sup>8</sup> is sacrificed for vs. <sup>8</sup> Therefore let vs keepe the Feast, not with old leauen, neither with the leauen of malice and wickednesse: but with the vneleavened bread of sinceritie and trueth.

you. not to tangle you in a snare: but that ye follow that, which is honest and comely, and that ye may quietly cleave unto the Lord without separation.

<sup>36</sup> If any man think that it is vncomly for his virgin yf she passe the flowre of her age, and if so neede requireth, let hym do what he lysteth, he synneth not: let them be coupled in mariage. <sup>37</sup> Neuerthelesse he that purposeth surly in his heart, hauing no node, but hath power ouer his owne wyl: and hath so decreed in his heart, that he wil kepe his virgin, doth wel. <sup>38</sup> So then he that ioyneth his virgin in mariage, doth wel: but he that ioyneth not his virgin in mariage, doth better. <sup>39</sup> The wyfe is bounde by the lawe, as long as her husband lyueth: but if her husband slepe, she is at libertie to mary wyth whom she wyl, only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup> But she is happier yf she so abide, in my iudgement. and I thinke also that I haue the Sprite of God.

8. AS touching things sacrificed vnto idols, we knowe that we all haue knowledge. knowledge maketh a man swel, but loue edifieth. <sup>2</sup> If any man seme to him selfe that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup> But yf any man loue God, the same is taught of him. <sup>4</sup> To speake therefore of meat sacrificed vnto idols, we knowe that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. <sup>5</sup> And though ther be that are called goddes, whether in heauen, other in earth, (as ther be many goddes, and many Lordes) <sup>6</sup> Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all thynges, and we in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ by whom are all thynges, and we by him.

<sup>7</sup> But euery man hath not that knowledge. for some hauing conscience because of the idol vntil this houre, eat as a thing offered vnto the idoles, and so their conscience beyne yet weak, is defyled. <sup>8</sup> But meate maketh vs not acceptable to you, but to that which is honest, and that may giue you pover without impediment to attend vpon our Lord.

<sup>36</sup> But if any man think that he seemeth dishonoured vpon his virgin, for that she is past age, and if it must so be, let him doe that he vvil. He sinneth not if she marie. <sup>37</sup> For he that hath determined in his hart being settled, not hauing necessitie, but hauing pover of his owne vvil, and hath iudged this in his hart, to keepe his virgin, doeth vvell. <sup>38</sup> Therefore both he that ioyneth his virgin in matrimonie, doeth vvell: and he that ioyneth not, doeth better.

<sup>39</sup> A vvoman is bound to the law so long time as her husband liueth: but if her husband slepe, she is at libertie: let her marie to vvhom she vvil: only in our Lord. <sup>40</sup> But more blessed shal she be, if she so remaine, according to my counsel. and I thinke that I also haue the Sprite of God.

8. AND concerning those things that are sacrificed to Idols, vve knowv that vve al haue knowvledge. Knowvledge puffeth vp: but charitie edifieth. <sup>2</sup> And if any man think that he knoweth something, he hath not yet knowen, as he ought to knowv. <sup>3</sup> But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him. <sup>4</sup> But as for the meates that are immolated to Idols, vve knowv that an Idol is nothing in the vvorld, and that there is no God, but one. <sup>5</sup> For although there be that are called gods, either in heauen, or in earth (for there are many gods, and many lordes) <sup>6</sup> yet to vs there is one God, the Father, of vvhom al thyngs, and vve vnto him: and one Lord, Iesus Christ, by vvhom al thyngs, and vve by him.

<sup>7</sup> But there is not knowvledge in al. For some vntil this present vvith a conscience of the Idol, eat as a thing sacrificed to Idols: and their conscience being vvake, is polluted. <sup>8</sup> But meate doth not cast a snare vpon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend vpon the Lord without distraction. <sup>36</sup> But if any man think that he behaueth himselfe vncomly toward his virgin, if she passe the flowre of her age, and neede so require, let him doe what hee will, hee sinneth not: let them marrie.

<sup>37</sup> Neuerthelesse, hee that standeth stedfast in his heart, hauing no necessitie, but hath power ouer his owne wil, and hath so decreed in his heart that hee will keepe his virgin, doeth well. <sup>38</sup> So then hee that giueth her in mariage doeth well: but hee that giueth her not in mariage, doth better. <sup>39</sup> The wife is bound by the Lawe as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband bee dead, shee is at libertie to be married to whom shee wil, onely in the Lord. <sup>40</sup> But shee is happier if shee so abide, after my iudgement: and I thinke also that I haue the Sprite of God.

8. NOW as touching things offered vnto idoles, vve knowv that wee all haue knowvledge. Knowledge puffeth vp: but Charitie edifieth. <sup>2</sup> And if any man think that hee knoweth any thing, hee knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup> But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him. <sup>4</sup> As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice vnto idoles, vve knowv that an idole is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

<sup>5</sup> For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen or in earth (as there be gods many, and lords many:) <sup>6</sup> But to vs there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all thyngs, and we <sup>a</sup> in him, and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all thyngs, and we by him. <sup>7</sup> Wherebeit there is not in euery man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idole vnto this houre, eate it as a thing offered vnto an idole, and their conscience being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup> But meate commendeth vs not to God: for

 9 Βλέπετε δὲ μήπως ἡ ἐξουσία ὑμῶν αὕτη πρόσκομμα γένηται τοῖς ἄσθενούσιν· 10 ἐὰν γὰρ τις ἴδῃ σε, τὸν ἔχοντα γνώσιν, ἐν εἰδωλείῳ κατακείμενον, οὐχὶ ἢ συνείδησις αὐτοῦ ἀσθενοῦς ὄντος οἰκοδομηθήσεται εἰς τὸ τὰ εἰδωλόθητα ἐσθίειν, 11 καὶ ἀπολείται ὁ ἀσθενῶν ἀδελφὸς ἐπὶ τῇ σῇ γνώσει, δι' ὃν Χριστὸς ἀπέ-
